President Appeals For Shorter Hours, Higher Wages

VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT IS SOUGHT

Every Employer in United States Called Upon to Create Additional Work

Roosevelt Urges Agreement Become Effective Aug. 31 All Over Country

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(UP)—President Roosevelt today called upon every employer in the United States to raise wages and create employment by shortening working hours.

His urgent appeal launched an emergency re-employment drive such as never before has been undertaken in this or any other country.

Calling for "united action," the president asked all employers to subscribe to a blanket code giving white-collar workers a 40-hour week and a $12-15 minimum wage, and industrial labor a 35-hour week with a minimum wage of 40 cents an hour.

Voluntary co-operation was the basis of this unprecedented social and economic experiment, this "mass attack on depression."

The emergency campaign intends putting the industrial recovery program in full swing without waiting for approval of industrial codes. Sections of the national recovery act were invoked as authorization.

Highlights of the voluntary agreement to which all employers were asked to subscribe:

1. The agreements would become effective Aug. 31.
1. The agreements would become effective Aug. 31.
2. Child labor is banned with certain exceptions.

Minimum Hours
3. Clerical or "white-collar" workers will be limited to a 40-hour week, with a minimum pay of $15 in cities of 500,000 or more; $14.50 in cities of between 250,000 and 500,000 population; $14 in cities between 2,500 and 250,000, and 20 per cent wage increases in towns of less than 2,500 provided this does not require more than $12 a week.

4. Factory or mechanical workers limited to 35 hours per week until Dec. 31, with the right to work 40 hours per week for any six weeks within this period. No worker shall be employed more than eight hours in any one day. Forty cents an hour shall be the minimum wage unless a scale lower than that was in effect July 15, 1929, and in no case shall less than 30 cents an hour be paid.

5. Prices must not be increased over the July 1 price except where made necessary by increased costs or taxes.

6. Flexibility is provided to avoid working hardships for particular cases where limitation on hours of skilled labor would reduce production, but time and one-third must be paid for all work in excess of the maximum hours.

Deadline Fixed

8. September 1 is fixed as deadline for the submission of codes. The president will fix dates for hearings arbitrarily unless industries are heard from by that time.

BALBO AND AIDES GIVEN RECEPTION

NEW YORK, July 21.—(UP)—A cheering throng jammed along sidewalks and leaning skyscraper windows gave a tumultuous reception today to Gen. Italo Balbo and his flying companions as they rode up Broadway through a storm of ticker tape and torn paper to receive the formal greeting their city reserves for its heroes.

From the Battery to city hall hundreds of thousands viewed the triumphal procession and at the spot century-old seat of city government—additional thousands massed solidly to acclaim the flyers as Mayor John P. O'Brien presented their bearded commander with a medal of valor.

CHICAGO BOARD SUSPENDS ALL TRADING TODAY

Kansas City Grain Market Also Is Closed on Orders of Directors

CHICAGO, July 21.—(UP)—Trading on the Chicago board of trade, the world's greatest grain market, was suspended today. Directors, meeting far into the night after the worst price depressing session in its history, voted to close for the day.

They explained the action was necessary to "afford a brief holiday to overworked employees," but it was considered gravely significant that the order climaxed two sessions at which wheat plunged 30 cents a bushel and other grains broke correspondingly.

A few hours before issuing the closing order, directors voted that for an indefinite period trading in wheat and rye would be restricted to a range of eight cents from the previous day's close. Corn and barley will be limited to a five-cent range and oats to four.

The closing order affected futures trading in grains and provisions. Cash grain and cotton will be traded as usual.

K. C. Board Closed
The Kansas City board of trade ordered trading suspended today and imposed the same limitations, after experiencing a day similar to that in the Chicago pit, with an extreme drop of 19 cents a bushel in wheat.

The closing and price limitation orders followed one of the wildest trading sessions in exchange history. Volume yesterday was expected to exceed 170,000 bushels, the greatest since the crash in 1929 and the hectic selling of war time. Wheat prices crashed so rapidly that at one time September wheat was selling for 94 cents on one side of the pit and 95 cents on the other.

Excessive long interests were blamed for the plunge. The dizzy operations started as huge selling orders flooded the pit. Short interests temporarily stormed the advance, but with new buyers hesitant to enter the market, the bottom fell out. Pyramided holdings were caught in the rush and dumped their entire lots into the market, many of them at severe losses.

AMERICANS GIVEN RELEASE ON BAIL

PALMA, Mallorca, July 21.—(UP)—Early in a case that was assuming proportions of a serious international incident was foreseen today after Francisco Vidal, chief judge of the military court, ordered the release in bail of the last of the five Americans held for 46 days without trial on the charge of striking a member of the crack Guardia Civil.

The Americans still faced the prospect of a military trial, their offense coming under army law. Because of Mallorcans' resentment against Americans, it was indicated sentences would exactly match the time they spent in jail awaiting trial, so that they would be given immediate unconditional freedom.

President's Son Refutes Statements

Declines to Confirm Rumor That He Will Marry Fort Worth Girl

CHICAGO, July 21.—(UP)—Elliott Roosevelt, son of the President, told the United Press today that "my plans for the next 36 hours do not include any wedding."

Roosevelt, confronted by stories that he and pretty Miss Ruth Goggins were to be married tomorrow at the home of Miss Goggins' uncle at Burlington, Iowa, issued a vigorous denial of such a plan.

"I won't confirm or deny that I am going to get married, but I will say that it won't be within the next two days," said Roosevelt. "I am going to have lunch with my sister and spend the afternoon at the World's Fair. Tonight I am going on a party at the fair which will last very late and I expect to sleep late tomorrow morning."

Urged to make a more definite statement regarding his much publicized romance with Miss Goggins, who slipped out of Chicago yesterday with her mother, Roosevelt said:

"I am looking for a job. All this publicity is helping me in getting some sort of a position. And another thing I'd like to point out. Has it ever occurred to you that I might have asked the young lady and that she has refused me?"

Roosevelt is employed by a West Coast air line but because of decreased business the president's son is seeking another position. He came to Chicago for the avowed purpose of interviewing officials of several airplane companies.

BERKELEY WILL BE LONELY ARID SPOT

SACRAMENTO, Calif., July 21.—(UP)—A question of threat is not an emergency as far as members of the senate judiciary committee are concerned.

As a result of this attitude, the committee sentenced Berkeley to be the one dry spot in California for the next two years by killing a bill which would have permitted the sale of beer in the forbidden area within one mile of the University of California.

The committee decided it was not the proper legislation to consider at this time despite the fact Berkeley recently voted in favor of the change.

ROOSEVELT URGED TO CLOSE 'CHANGE

LONDON, July 21.—(UP)—If President Roosevelt wants to save the world, he will close the New York stock exchange, Premier R. B. Bennett of Canada said today on emerging from a meeting of wheat conference delegates.

Bennett previously indicated privately he approved the closing of trading in grain futures in Chicago.

He declined to elaborate his remark about the New York stock exchange, but it was taken to mean he felt a halt in speculation was necessary, and closing the exchange would be the best way to accomplish it.

RYE CRASHES TODAY ON WINNIPEG MART

WINNIPEG, Man., July 21.—(UP)—A sensational decline in rye futures marked trading on the Winnipeg grain market today with wheat closing practically unchanged.

At the close rye futures had dropped 14 3/8 to 18 5/8 cents a bushel.

The market reacted strongly under the influence of the sensational decline on American exchanges which forced the closing of all grain pits in that country today.

TARIFF TRUCE DRAFT SENT TO WORLD PARLEY BY HULL

LONDON, July 21.—(UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull presented to the expiring world economic conference today the draft of an international truce against restrictions of trade, supplementing the so-called tariff "truce."

A letter accompanying Hull's proposal pointed out that although the chief portion of its work is incomplete, the conference is about to enter a recess.

"During and after the recess, it is to be hoped the governments will carry out the fundamental purpose of the conference," he said. Pittman of Nevada worked hard for an agreement to stabilize silver prices. The eight silver producing and holding countries conferred for several hours in his suite. They encountered difficulty over the phrasing of the agreement but hoped to reach a complete accord tomorrow.

Hull's proposal, which would prolong as well as supplement the tariff agreement, was read at a public meeting of the economic commission in a small, sweltering committee room by Hendrikus Colijn of Holland.

Colijn said he understood it was not proposed to open discussion of Hull's proposal and he therefore suggested that it merely be attached to the committee's report.

TENNESSEE IS FARM BUREAU'S 19TH STATE TO TAX MEASURE FAVOR REPEAL IS WITHDRAWN

Wets Win Hair-Breadth Victory, Carrying State By 9000 Votes

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 21.—(UP)—Tennessee today became the 19th state to favor abolition of the 19th amendment when late returns in yesterday's repeal election overcame the early lead taken by the dry forces.

Returns from 2000 out of the state's 2252 precincts, gave: For repeal: 123,516. Against repeal: 113,817.

In joining Arkansas and Alabama in favoring repeal, Tennessee became the third state to break down the ranks of the traditionally dry south and sent President Roosevelt's revocation movement past the half-way mark in the nation.

Nineteen states now have entered the repeal column, a perfect score for the repealists. Thirty-six states are necessary for ratification of the 21st (repeal) amendment.

While the reports from the unreported rural districts showed a slight gain in strength by the drys, the victory for repeal was considered assured.

The final vote may show a repeal majority in the state of between 8000 and 10,000 votes, observers said.

The four large cities of the state—Memphis, Knoxville, Nashville and Chattanooga—saved the movement for the wet supporters. All turned in repeal majorities but Memphis led the way among the four with a 15 to 1 avalanche for the wets.

Eastern Tennessee and in many country districts over the state where dry sentiment was strong, set threw a scare into the wets when the early returns showed the drys had taken a sizeable lead. However, the urban centers, where polls closed three hours later, began piling up a total which soon overcame the dry advantage.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS URGED TO LAUNCH DRIVE TO END DEPRESSION HERE

An appeal for cooperation to banish unemployment and aid in the vast recovery program launched by the United States government was contained in a telegram received this afternoon by George A. Raymer, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce from Hugh S. Johnson, director of the national recovery act.

Johnson asked that the chamber of commerce in Santa Ana take the initiative in forming an organization composed of Mayor Paul Witmer, civic officials, service clubs, merchants, fraternal and patriotic groups and any other organizations representative of the economic life of the community, to direct a proposed campaign of education calculated to end the depression and restore normal business conditions.

Prices Drop Four To 13 Points Today

Heaviest Turnover Since Gigantic Days of Late October, 1929

NEW YORK, July 21.—(UP)—A stampede of selling on the stock exchange in the late afternoon trading today broke prices 4 to 13 points in the heaviest turnover since the gigantic days of late October, 1929.

Shorts covered heavily just before the close and leaders turned up from the lows.

Despite the late rally, however, paper losses on all listed issues ran to more than $3,000,000.

Today rounded out a 3-day drop which wiped out nearly half of the gains made from the reopening after the bank holiday until Tuesday when the list went into new high ground for the year.

In that period the Dow-Jones industrial average gained 54.83 to 108.67, or slightly more than 100 per cent.

On Wednesday the average lost 5 points; yesterday it lost more than 7 and today the loss was extended, bringing the 3-day total to around 20 points, one of the worst percentage declines in stock exchange history.

As the frantic session drew to a close, tickers were hopelessly behind the market, recording sales made 30 minutes previously.

Sales totaled 3,570,000 shares on the stock market, 1,440,000 on the curb, and 255,000 on the Chicago market, an aggregate of 11,265,000 shares. That compared with 9,600,000 shares for the same period last year.

On the stock exchange, 1,291,000 on the curb, and 220,000 on the Chicago market.

Today's crash came after an early advance of 1 to 5 points which was accompanied by strength in wheat at Winnipeg and a weak dollar.

The dollar strengthened late in the day with the pound sterling dropping 17 cents from its early high of $4.72 1/2.

Sterling's crash (a corresponding dollar rise) was not explained in banks of brokerage offices. The British conversion plan acceptance by parliament may have had a part in starting the decline, bankers said, but it was not sufficient to demoralize the unit. The sterling break came after the London trading had ceased.

Commodities were forced down sharply. Cotton at its low was down $6 a bale. Silver lost more than 2 cents an ounce; rubber lost more than 11-2 cents a pound. The Chicago board of trade closed today to permit clerks to catch up with their work.

Clerks in New York offices were complaining of overwork. They were forced to remain until after 2 a. m. this morning. It was believed the stock exchange might close the exchange for a day or so or curtail trading sessions to give them a rest, as it did in 1929.

Drainage were done in cash grain at Chicago. Wheat No. 2 red was at 88 1/4 cents a bushel off 8 3/4 cents; corn No. 2 mixed, 49 1/2 cents off 7 3/8 cents; rye, No. 2, 69 up 7 1/2 cents; oats, No. 2, white, 32 1/2 off 6 3/4.

On the decline Steel common touched 49 1/4, off 8 1/4 points. By 2:55 p. m. it was back to 52 7/8. Allied Chemical touched 110 off 11 1/2. It came back 3 points.

WOMAN AND CHILD KILLED BY AUTOIST

PALO ALTO, Cal., July 21.—(UP)—An automobile driven by a woman last night struck down and killed Mrs. E. W. Lyons of East Palo Alto and her 10-months old daughter, Nancy, whom she was wheeling in a baby carriage.

Mrs. Gladys Sisevich, 28, of San Mateo, driver of the automobile, was arrested and lodged in the Redwood City jail with her husband, N. J. Sisevich, who was riding with her.

Astor's Wife Is Granted Divorce Today

MINDEN, Nev., July 21.—(UP)—Madeline Force Dick, widow of John Jacob Astor, today obtained a divorce from William K. Dick of New York City on charges of extreme mental cruelty.

The New York society leader refused to comment on reports she and Vincent Filomonte, handsome 25-year-old Italian boxing instructor would marry as soon as he obtains a divorce at Reno.

Mrs. Astor-Dick's case was heard behind closed doors and the testimony sealed. Terms of an agreement over custody of their two sons, John Henry and William Force Dick, were not revealed.

APPROPRIATION BILLS BEFORE STATE SOLONS

Measures Pass Two Hurdles and Assured Consideration on Floor

SACRAMENTO, Calif., July 21.—(UP)—Five bills carrying appropriations totaling $1,184,000 today were past two major hurdles—the joint rules and assembly ways and means committees—and were assured actual consideration on the floor of the legislature.

The ways and means committee approved:

- 1—An additional appropriation of $134,000 for the department of social welfare.

- 2—Seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars more for junior colleges.

- 3—Fifty thousand dollars to the state controller to finance beer tax audits.

- 4—A bill appropriating $150,000 to finance the cost of assessing utilities by the board of equalization.

- 5—Hundred thousand dollars to the board of equalization for administering the beer tax.

Mrs. Rhea Crawford Spivale, director of the department of social welfare, had offered to resign if the legislature appropriated enough additional funds to bring her department's biennial budget up to approximately $400,000. The most she will get, however, is $278,000. Consequently, it is understood she intends to resign her job.

Legislative antagonism towards Mrs. Spivale was said to be the principal reason only $144,000 was granted her department at the spring session.

The ways and means committee also approved a measure permitting the public works department to meet provisions of federal requirements in relation to the $16,000,000 public works highway construction allocation for California.

The joint rules committee ruthlessly denied legislative consideration of several score bills. But they did approve the state recovery act measure. This bill is patterned after the national industry recovery act. Its purpose is to bring California into line 100 per cent with the Roosevelt recovery program.

CLARKE WILL MEET WITH GOV. ROLPH

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—(UP)—Robert M. Clarke, Los Angeles attorney and former Ventura judge, will confer with Governor Rolph before deciding whether he will accept the appointment as state insurance commissioner, he said today.

"I have taken the matter under advisement," he said. "I am naturally gratified by the appointment which came as a surprise and unsolicited but I have personal business affairs to consider before I could accept."

He said he would leave for Sacramento within a day or two to confer with the governor and senate leaders. The senate confirmed his appointment yesterday.

Repairs Made to Plane After Crash in Alaska and Solo Trip Resumed

FAR AHEAD OF RECORD

Clear Weather on 1600 Mile Hop Today Will Permit Increased Speed

BULLETIN

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, July 21.—(UP)—Wiley Post landed his globe-circling plane here at 10:43 a. m. today (12:43 p. m. PST).

He had flown from Flat, Alaska.

Post immediately refueled his plane for the 1450-mile hop to Edmonton, Alberta, on the next to the last jump of his round-the-world flight.

He had been away from New York 155 hours and 35 minutes when he landed here.

FLAT, Alaska, July 21.—(UP)—Striking down the Yukon valley, Wiley Post sped toward Edmonton today, with every hope of setting a new "round-the-world" flight record.

Crashing and damaging his propeller, cowling and wheel strut here after being lost in a storm for six hours Thursday, Post had a good rest while his plane was repaired.

"I will probably make only a fueling stop at Edmonton now," he said before he left here, "and then will head straight for New York."

Although the intrepid flier lost more than 15 hours here, he was still nearly 15 hours ahead of his former record, made in the same plane with Harold Gatty in 1931.

Clearing weather over Alaska, and good weather reported over Yukon territory and Alberta, augured for still faster time. Post was extremely disappointed at his enforced delay and was determined to make up the time lost.

When he took off from the field here he was accompanied, in another plane, by Joe Crosson as far as Nenana and Fairbanks, Crosson, Pacific-Alaska Airways pilot, flew here last night from Fairbanks with a new propeller and two expert airplane mechanics, who worked all night on the Winnie Mae.

Post's flight to Edmonton will be about 1600 miles, and the Edmonton to New York hop about 2200 miles.

He said he would be in New York Saturday.

LINDBERGH LEAVE ON 300 MILE HOP

CARTWRIGHT, Labrador, July 21.—(UP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh left here at 10:22 A. M. EDT today, continuing their route-making flight in the north.

Their destination was understood to be Nain, 300 miles away. They had been held here since last week by unfavorable weather.

Lindbergh did not give out definite information about his destination.

One report said he planned to head straight for Greenland without stopping at Nain.

FAMILY NIGHT PROGRAMS TO BE CONTINUED

The first observance of "family night" at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening proved a popular attraction for a number of men and their families, who spent an enjoyable hour in the swimming pool together. The feature is to be continued for some weeks, according to announcement from the Y. M. C. A. office today.

Each man who is a member of the "Y" is given the privilege of bringing the members of his family for a swim on Thursday evening, between 7:30 and 9 o'clock. While the families were swimming last night, a group of musically-minded men gathered in the lobby for an informal sing, with Halstead MacCormick at the piano, and they decided to try another sing next Thursday evening, to which they invite others who like to sing for the pleasure of it.

This evening, Judge Morrison's "Friday Night" club of boys will hear a short talk by Dr. H. J. Howard, on "Backbone," and will then have their weekly free swim in the pool. All boys who are members of the Y. M. C. A. are counted in on the Friday night events, and all these members are advised to be present before 7:30 o'clock when the program starts.

Former Sailor Given Two Years On Bigamy Count

James E. Marrah, 40, former sailor in the U. S. Navy, was denied probation today by Judge James L. Allen and sentenced to San Quentin prison on a charge of bigamy. The prison sentence was suspended on condition that Marrah spend two years in the county jail.

Marrah pleaded guilty to marrying Miss Lela Moore in Brea several months ago. At the time of his marriage he had a wife, Mrs. Josephine Marrah, living in Los Angeles. Marrah and his first wife were married December 15, 1916, in Honolulu, while he was still in the navy.

When wheat soared to a dollar for the first time in two years, suffered heavily. Open market dealers and small traders saw their entire profits of the past weeks wiped out.

At the end of the session, when reports that large eastern firms were in a large measure responsible for the selling avalanche, came word from Washington directing grain exchanges to report large commitments by individual traders.

May wheat dropped from $1.16 to 97 3/4, then rallied to close at $1.01, the only future above the traditional dollar mark.

Under restrictions now in effect, July wheat may range only from $2 to 98 cents tomorrow; September from $2.78 to $2.75; December from $2.88 to $2.84; and May from 92 1/4 to $1.05 1/2.

Corn suffered nearly as badly as wheat. It declined 12 to 13 cents yesterday. Oats were 7 to 10 cents lower, rye 21 to 26 cents off, and barley 5 cents, under a previous restriction.

DRY WORKERS TO CONVENE TUESDAY

Members of the Santa Ana Dry association have been called to a meeting to be held next Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. Call for the meeting was issued by the Rev. C. D. Hicks, president of the association.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 o'clock and, according to the notice, is for the purpose of presenting reports relative to the recent campaign and to wind up business connected with the campaign. A discussion of the next move against the liquor interests will also be held.

EMPLOYERS OF NATION ASKED TO RAISE PAY

Postoffices throughout the country will be used to get the agreements before every one of the country's more than 5,000,000 employers. Every employer will receive a form by July 27.

The NRA publicity department, headed by Charles F. Horner of liberty loan fame, swung into action with a campaign of education designed to carry the NRA gospel to every city, hamlet and crossroads in the country.

Employers supporting the president's program will be given signs. All citizens are asked to patronize stores and industries which co-operate.

Administrator S. Johnson, head of the national recovery administration, has worked on the program for days. Finally it was ready for the president.

Johnson was at dinner last night at the Carlton hotel, his Washington home, when a messenger arrived from the White House. A batch of documents were hurried through the lane of diners to the general's table. Johnson glanced at them and called his chauffeur.

At 9 p. m. Johnson reached the White House. Two hours later he emerged.

"Well," he said, "it's O. K." A few minutes later he reached his office in the commerce department. Down through the dimly lit corridors went Johnson, his secretary and a half-dozen aides.

Johnson passed on into his inner office. A score of newspapermen followed him. An assistant extracted from a manila envelope 25 copies of the president's message to employers, and the accompanying agreement, and laid them on Johnson's desk.

"That's what you're waiting for," Johnson said. "Help yourself."

"I'm just as convinced that this is going to work as I am that I'm sitting here," he continued. He exhibited one chart, the work of his research division, which showed the curve of purchasing power going steadily down, with a slight upturn in recent weeks. But the curve of production had soared high above it.

"That sort of thing simply can't go on," he said. "We've got to bring these two lines together." He displayed a telegram. It was from the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., pledging the cooperation of its 15,000 stores.

Asks Cooperation
The appeal for public cooperation was started today with telegrams from Johnson to presidents of the chambers of commerce in every city of more than 10,000 population in the United States. He urged them to take the initiative in forming local campaign committees to carry on the drive.

Accompanying the president's appeal and the form for the so-called "blanket code" was Bulletin No. 3, issued by Johnson. This provided for creating of one district recovery board of seven members for each district of the department of commerce, to be appointed by the president. The 24 district managers of the department of commerce will act as board secretaries. Each board will consist of one person prominent in each of the following activities—manufacturing, retail trade, wholesale trade, banking, farming, labor and social service.

Each state will have a recovery board of nine members appointed by the president and serving without compensation. They will represent commercial, industrial, labor and civic interests. Serving with the state boards will be state recovery councils, whose function will be to recommend organization activity to the board and devise means of perfecting and strengthening the NRA organizations.

"There is no force here except conscience and opinion, said the bulletin. "This is an appeal to those good instincts of our people which have never been sought in vain. But it is not a bullyboon campaign. The plan is new; the agreement is not a simple and a thorough public program of explanation is needed and will be carried out. After four years of hopeless and seemingly helpless suffering and inaction, it would be unforgivable not to open to the country the chance it now has under this law to unite once more to overcome an emergency and, it may be, to defeat depression.

"This is a test of patriotism. It is time to demonstrate the faith of our fathers and our belief in ourselves."

The bulletin described the president's re-employment drive as "a truce on selfishness."

Democrats Hold Session Tonight

Members of the Orange County Democratic Central committee will hold their regular meeting at the Marigold cafe in Anaheim at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

While this is a regular meeting of the committee with routine business to be transacted, it is thought that endorsements for the position of United States deputy marshal will be made.

WILL ROGERS SAYS---

BEVERLY HILLS, July 21.—(To the Editor of The Register:)
The nearest thing we have had to "non kick tax" so far has been the gasoline tax, because they knew the money was going for roads. Now that repeal is assured, they better get in early and have it understood what the revenue will go to, too. What would be the matter with using every cent just for charity and unemployed relief. And make the tax very high, even as high as 50 per cent. If it was a 50 per cent tax, and it went to charity, you couldn't drink alone, some poor family would be drinking with you. Five cents a glass beer would cost you a dime, you get the beer, somebody gets a loaf of bread. Anybody give a big champagne party and spend hundreds of dollars, not even a Communist could kick on for the needy get half of it. Even at double the price it wouldn't be as high as the country is paying. Nobody could kick on a person drinking if he gave an equal amount to somebody that was hungry. That would come nearer being a painless tax than any I know of.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

Fireman Is Given Ticket For Going 58 Miles Per Hour

He may have been going home to lunch or to a fire but it made no difference to California Highway Patrolman Ben Craig when he issued a traffic citation yesterday to Rufus J. Briscoe, assistant fire chief at Newport Beach.

Briscoe is charged with going through the intersection at The Arches without making the boulevard stop and then speeding down the highway at 58 miles per hour. When overhauled by Officer Craig after a brisk chase, Briscoe was considerably incensed that a public official should be arrested, Craig said. Craig told him to talk with Judge Donald Dodge in Costa Mesa on July 25 at 10 a. m.

SUIT AGAINST BUS LINE IS DISMISSED

Through her attorney, Fred A. Steiner, of Los Angeles, Mrs. Elsie Potvin, administratrix of the estate of her son, Leo A. Potvin, filed notice of dismissal with prejudice of her suit for $100,109 damages against the Pacific Greyhound Lines, Inc., and John Weston. Steiner said that a settlement had been made.

The suit was filed more than a year ago and named the stage line and Weston, driver for the line, as defendants. The suit demanded $100,000 actual damages for Potvin and $100 special.

According to the complaint, Potvin, who was a sailor, was a passenger in a stage owned by the line and driven by Weston. The stage was San Diego bound from Los Angeles and when nearing Serra the vehicle ran into a ditch and was wrecked. An explosion followed and the stage burst into flames. Potvin received burns from which he died within a few hours.

BADMINTON TITLE WON BY COUPLE

Mrs. Katherine Orser and Miss Katherine Grassie of Pasadena won the women's doubles title in the novice tournament held this week by the Laguna Beach Badminton club and not Miss Jean Kinney and Miss Barbara Bolsoi of Pasadena, as was given out by Bill Fassett, who managed the play. Bill apologized today for making the error in giving out the results and said he would square it with the real winners. Bill also admits that he "heard plenty about it" as one of the winners is his sister, and then again, the tournament manager says its funny how a fellow's thoughts will get twisted when he expected a certain thing to happen. Mrs. Orser and Miss Grassie, as a result of their win, will enter the big tournament to be played on the courts Saturday and Sunday.

$37 CHECK RESULTS IN JAIL SENTENCE

Herbert P. Lewey, 27, former proprietor of a gift shop at Costa Mesa, was denied probation on a charge of issuing a fictitious check for $37, when he appeared before Superior Judge James L. Allen. Lewey was sentenced to San Quentin prison and the sentence suspended providing he spend one year in the county jail.

Lewey pleaded guilty to cashing the check at the Rankin Dry Goods store while he and his mother were operating the gift shop in Costa Mesa. The check was cashed August 14, 1931. Since issuing the check, Lewey, it was revealed, has served a year in federal penitentiary for violation of the postal laws.

Natividad Hernandez, who pleaded guilty, last week to stealing a horse from J. A. Gregory, was granted probation for three years providing he spend one year in the county jail.

Court Notes

George Doolittle was given a suspended jail sentence when he appeared before Judge Kenneth Morrison this morning on a charge of passing bad checks. He was ordered to pay up his bills and appear in court on September 6.

LeRoy Moore, Santa Ana, charged with petty theft, had his hearing continued until July 31 when he appeared in justice court today.

John Weber was fined $1 in police court yesterday for overtime parking.

ney James Davis. Davis asked that the second count be dismissed in furtherance of justice. Watkins asked for probation and will appear next Friday for hearing on his petition. Watkins was accused of burglarizing the chicken house of Ben Hemmerling in Fullerton and burglarizing the home of Jess Goodwin, two miles from Fullerton on the Orangeflower road. Charges of burglarizing the Goodwin home were dismissed.

A WORD OF COMFORT
A puny personality is the fruit of narrow interests. To increase your contacts and to become more useful to others, you must give attention to people and things on every side. Alertness must be cultivated.

The hardest experiences in life develop you most through enlarging your range of vision. Amid your sorrow, look away from yourself with the determination to be interested in what others are accomplishing. You will discover that your grief has opened your eyes to see new ways of helping others.

CLUB TO HEAR EARLY HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY

Program for the opening day of the Fiesta del Oro, to be staged in Santa Ana July 27, 28 and 29 as Orange county's second annual historical event, was announced today by Bruce Switzer.

The opening ceremonies, to be staged by the Orange County Breakfast club, will take place at a big street breakfast on Main street between Fourth and Fifth streets Thursday morning at 7 o'clock.

Cally Holden's dance orchestra will play from 7 to 7:40 a. m. when Claude McDowell, club president, will open the meeting and turn it over to Bruce Switzer, who will respond and announce the purpose of the meeting.

Abe Lefton, who announced the World Congress of Rough Riders in Los Angeles and who is widely known as a radio and movie announcer, will act as master of ceremonies.

At a signal of a trumpet, an announcer will tell of the arrival of Gov. Pio Pico, who comes here from Monterey. Sol Gonzales and others will participate in the opening ceremonies. T. E. Stephenson, postmaster, will give a short talk on the early history of Orange county which the fiesta depicts.

The opening orchestra number on the program will be "Rancho Grande," theme song of the fiesta, to be played by Gonzales' Troubadours and singers. Enriqueta Armendariz will sing. Monte Montana and his educated horse will be featured at the program. A dance number will be staged by Farro Blanquito and the Morena children.

Monte Reger and his famous educated Texas longhorn steer will be featured on the program, as will two trick girl riders. Orchestral numbers will be interspersed in the program.

The opening event will be photographed by a news reel company for use in moving pictures.

CITY COUNCIL AT SEAL BEACH SETS TAX RATE

At the regular meeting of the Seal Beach city council last night the tax rate for the current year as computed by the assessor and the auditor to be $1.40 for each $100 of taxable property. It was voted that the proposed tax rate be accepted as the rate for the year 1933-1934 and that it be referred to the city attorney to draw up the necessary ordinance.

Since no word has been received from the promoters of the proposed race track here, further reading of the racing ordinance was postponed until the next meeting in the hope that by that time word will have been received from the backers of the project.

Councilman Walker suggested that the city take advantage of the R. F. C. labor to do some street and sidewalk repaving; the only cost to the city would be for the material. The matter was referred to the street committee to determine the amount of work which should be done. Councilman Hussey called attention to the fact that the street lights damaged during the earthquake also can be included in R. F. C. work.

It was reported that the lights in the chamber of commerce sign at the west boundary of the city was burned out.

Application for an "on sale" liquor license by Guy Felton, who operates a service station and lunch stand at the "East Y" on the coast highway here, was granted.

In keeping with the spirit of the light opera, a selection from the Victor Herbert work, "Babes in Toyland," was the following number on the program. Bringing together all the favorite songs from this opera, this selection met with wide approval from the audience.

The lovely melodious strains of Drilla's "Serenade" was the next number in contrast with which the characteristic piece, "Village Life in the Olden Times," by Charles Le Thiere stood out in excellent relief. This amusing bit of musical compositions describes beautifully in a musical story the awakening of the sleepy village, the stir and bustle of the new born day with its accompanying activities, the business of midday and finally, the response of evening. Always a favorite masterpiece, Beethoven's "Turkish March" appeared next on the program.

The hitting "New Vienna" waltz by Johann Strauss followed the "Turkish March," and the program closed with the march by Bagley, "National Emblem."

The next concert will be held on next Thursday evening at the same time.

HOLD HEARING FOR EDITOR ON NEXT THURSDAY

Preliminary hearing of J. F. Burke, editor and publisher of The Register, accused of manslaughter as a result of an automobile accident September 29, 1932, was set for July 27, at 9:30 a. m. before Justice of the Peace A. W. Swayze of Orange township.

Pending the preliminary hearing Burke was released from custody under a $1000 property bond posted by O. H. Barr, Santa Ana lumberman, and Edwin T. McFadden, of the Commercial National bank.

The complaint charging Burke with manslaughter, was issued yesterday, nearly 10 months after the automobile accident in which Henry Prichard, 49, El Modena rancher, lost his life. The crash occurred at the intersection of Fairhaven and Hewes avenues. The complaint was signed by A. O. Hodson, brother-in-law of Prichard.

Immediately after the crash an investigation was conducted by sheriff's deputies and the district attorney's office. The coroner's jury returned an open verdict of accidental death, declaring that Prichard came to his death from a "fractured skull received when the Ford automobile operated by him was in a collision with a Marmon coupe operated by J. F. Burke."

Following the investigation conducted by the district attorney's office at the time of the accident, it was said that no charge would be filed against Burke and that Prichard's death was purely accidental.

Burke was notified of the charge filed against him shortly after 2 p. m. yesterday and went immediately to Orange, where he appeared before Justice of the Peace Swayze. He was accompanied by Attorney Franklin West. Later he appeared before Justice of the Peace Morrison of Santa Ana, where bond was posted.

theater in his latest outdoor action film, "Forbidden Trail." Appearing with the popular western star are Barbara Weeks and Mary Carr.

"Forbidden Trail" is an exciting blood and thunder "western," with crooked politics and guerrilla warfare between the homesteaders and the cattlemen keeping Buck very much on the go in seeing to it that the forces of law and order come out on top.

The picture brings Buck to the screen in a role that is entirely different from anything he has ever attempted before. Instead of the grim-matter-of-fact he-man of the screen, we have a broad-grinning, practical-joking, devil-may-care Jones that should delight his legion of admirers.

PETER STUYVESANT'S LEGACY

IN THE TEEMING middle east-side section of New York City are some seventy-five properties which were originally part of Peter Stuyvesant's "bouwerie farm." Today, nearly all of this land is still owned by heirs of the fiery old Dutch governor.

The value of the holdings has, of course, risen enormously. But the example is cited less for that reason than because of the far more fundamental lesson it teaches.

Old Peter's farm has been in the family three hundred years. During these centuries, industry has been revolutionized... not once, but many times.

Lighting has progressed from tallow candles to whale oil, then to kerosene, then to gas, and finally to electricity. In like manner, textile manufacture has evolved from spinning wheel to modern mill; transportation, from ox-cart to airplane.

Investment Memories
There have been changes aplenty. Industries have risen, flourished, declined. And each has run its comet course across the financial skies. Canal stocks and whaling cruise shares were once novelties, then staple investments. Today they are mere memories. But the "bouwerie farm" has remained a solid, tangible asset. Typical of well located city property, it has continued to yield income and to share soundly in the wealth created by each new industry.

Real estate is basic. It has no substitute. That is why, after each past depression, the value of good real property has always "come back." And that is why, today, with the prospect of refutation before them, many alert investors are hastening to acquire desirable real estate at prices that are still below normal.

To Our Present Investors

You who now hold Pacific States Savings certificates may well feel deep satisfaction that real estate security underlies your dollars. Throughout the worst days of depression, this security continued to yield better than average interest. And now the ability of this security to share soundly in the improvement of general conditions is shown by this fact: During April, May and June, Pacific States Savings sold 424 of its foreclosed properties at a total selling price of $1,568,645 without loss to the institution. Here indeed is evidence both of increasing real estate activity and the fundamental soundness of real estate assets.

TOASTMASTERS HEAR TALKS ON COUNTY, RUSSIA

Topics ranging from Orange county scenic and home-making advantages to discussions of national policy and European problems engrossed the Toastmasters' club Wednesday evening at its meeting at the Doris Kathryn tea room.

Dr. E. L. Russell introduced James Anderson as the first speaker. He told his hearers of the vast scope of country to be seen from Old Saddleback, Orange county's highest peak.

Dwight Hamilton spoke on "Orange County's Future," dwelling particularly on the possibilities centering on Newport harbor. He thought that home-making rather than industrial opportunities are likely to gain more for the county.

A. G. "Doc" Green made his first of a series of addresses on farm problems, developing in his talk the vast potential wealth being destroyed in the crop curtailment program. That the cotton being plowed under would, if left to mature, produce enough bales to stretch across the nation from coast to coast, was his assertion.

Dr. H. J. Howard, speaking on "Why We Should Recognize Russia," made what was conceded to be a convincing talk.

Harold Fish and Paul Roberts were impromptu speakers, the first on "Can Europe Disarm?" and the second on "The Effect of Repeal on Milk Products." Mr. Fish answered his own question in the negative. Mr. Roberts showed the reduced use of milk products in Santa Ana.

"Doc" Green and Dr. Howard were awarded first and second places on the ballot on speaking. Dr. D. J. Ruley presided, introducing the toastmaster, Dr. Howard.

'GOOD OF EVIL' DISCUSSED AT CLUB SESSION

Good things are the solved problems. Evils are the unsolved problems—the stimulus which engenders, sustains and promotes intellectual development, and has brought man to the mental plane of today.

This, in brief, was the message of Attorney Thomas McFadden of Anaheim, presented in a philosophical talk before the Santa Ana Lions club Thursday at Ketter's cafe under the title, "The Good of Evil." The speaker pointed out, from the very beginning of man, how the evils and dangers promoted intellectual development of men and women, and in the solution almost invariably led to "bigger and better evils" for other men to solve.

"Good" may exasperate, McFadden declared, but it does not stimulate thinking. Only the attempt to solve an evil problem causes men to think, and mental development ensues whether the solution happens to be correct or not, the speaker said. McFadden, who is president of the Orange County Bar association, said that crime will some day be solved, possibly by a wholesale system of sterilization, but that such a solution would likely lead to an even greater problem—the perpetuation of the race. He also pointed out that solving the famine problem in China will lead to such a growth of population that the very number of Chinese will create a world problem which will tax men's minds to solve.

The meeting and solving of the evils and problems of the world will eventually lead to development of the super-human mental brain, which appears to be the plan of the universe, with evil providing the stimulus and fertilizer for the growth of good, the speaker declared in conclusion.

President Carson Smith presided at the meeting, with Caesar Clanton acting as program chairman for the day. The Fiesta del Oro spirit was in evidence, with Miss Nellie Mal Chapman, one of the queen contestants, providing vocal and piano numbers, and accompanying Miss Alice Bacon, talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bacon, in some snappy tap dance numbers. Sol Gonzales and his aggregation of musicians provided typical fiesta music, which will be heard at the bowl program next Thursday evening. Among the guests present was Miss Helen Markel, another of the leading queen contestants.

COMMITTEE AIDS H. B. OIL MEASURE

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—(UP)—Legislation by Assemblyman Edward Craig, Brea, ceding state owned tidelands to the City of Huntington Beach, was approved for passage by the assembly revenue-taxation committee yesterday. The bill goes to the house floor.

The city seeks the tidelands for leasing to oil companies. It contends a rich oil pool under the tidelands now is being tapped by oil concerns sinking wells at an angle from shoreline property.

Craig said the state would receive $1,500,000 a year in oil royalties. Huntington Beach and Orange county would divide a like amount.

Phillip A. Stanton, state highway commissioner and Orange county beach property owner, protested the bill threatened beach pollution.

LA HABRA

LA HABRA, July 21.—Marion and Gordon Seagrave of Redondo Beach, returned to their home on Tuesday evening, after spending the past week with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Williams of East Whittier boulevard. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Seagrave and son Norman, were guests at the Williams home on Tuesday.

four and five million men employed within a year.

To this end government money is to be spent with a highly liberal hand. All but two stops on the public works organ are to be pulled out very shortly. The two that square-jawed Ickes most earnestly hopes to keep closed are those controlling waste and draft.

His job is cut out for him. It takes some performer to pump and play while keeping out these two sour notes.

Word seeping out from council meetings indicate our chief Public Workman Ickes is making a mean stab at learning his piece letter-perfect. Every item is being checked and double-checked right down to the last $100 for repairing a Department of Agriculture barn.

When Ickes took over the Public Works administration his temporary predecessors had worked out a $90,000,000 rivers and harbors program. He sent it back for re-checking with orders that it be co-ordinated. He told the council in executive session he wanted the time-honored "pork barrel" label removed.

Ditto for a public buildings program arranged by the Treasury department which would run about three-quarters of a billion. This was turned over to Budget Watchdog Lewis Douglas for scanning.

And finally Ickes prevailed on Secretary of War Dern to withdraw and re-examine an ambitious schedule for army housing, motorization and mechanization.

UTILITIES

But the real fun is coming when the board gets around to considering proposals to build municipal power plants and state transmission systems.

Ickes is a life-long Progressive and attached to the idea of Federal control of utilities. His inclinations will be all toward granting such bids.

He probably knows he's going to have to reckon with one gosh-awful lobby before getting very many over. The power boys have made this town roll over and play dead so long they think it's a habit instead of a trick.

JOBS
Ickes & Company hope to profit by England's mistakes in applying public works to the hole in the employment dike.

Sir Walter Runciman, president of the British Board of Trade (he'd be Secretary of Commerce here), says public works cost terrific dough and don't produce enough employment to offset. Our board of strategy has decided Britain's gesture was neither wide enough nor deep enough. Accordingly they're about set to take off the purse strings and throw 'em away. Meanwhile they will watch the woodpile closely for signs of dark-skinned life and keep their fingers crossed.

If the public workmen can put 4,000,000 men back to work, Uncle Sam would be about half way over the hump. If you go into the dugout where Federal economists hatch statistics they will tell you it is necessary to get more than 8,000,000 idle men in harness before the expectancy of sunshine approaches normal.

When this number have been gainfully employed their spending powers will give the other four or five million jobless a chance in "recreational occupations." Then theaters will need more ushers, garages will take on more mechanics.

Simple, isn't it?

LABOR
Organized labor isn't saying a thing for publication but the next time you meet it coming down the street notice the complacent look.

There's a reason. Union men are pulling the strings that make things dance down in the National Industrial Recovery Administration. General Johnson wouldn't admit it but Donald Richberg and Edward F. McGrady have slipped into comfortable places on the driver's seat and are having a lot of fun with the reins. Richberg was general counsel for the Association of Railway Labor Executives. He is now general counsel for NIRA. McGrady was legislative agent for the powerful Bricklayers' Council of the A. F. of L. He is now assistant administrator in charge of labor.

You got a tip-off on Richberg's stand-in when the Advisory Board voted him $12,000 a year after Johnson had cut his pay to $4,000 and that figure had been set as a maximum.

Those executive orders President Roosevelt signed last week making Johnson permanent administrator for and permitting various allied industries to tie onto the cotton textile code were conceived and drafted by Richberg.

McGrady's office is getting as much play from the big shots as Johnson's. And they're talking about other problems besides labor.

NAVY

Some days back brief items appeared in the papers that Marines and Forest Army boys were making things ship-shape on the Rapidan. It was said President Roosevelt had decided to use former President Hoover's camp after all.

This didn't quite stack up with some of Mr. Roosevelt's private observations about the Rapidan camp. He had been up there once and decided he'd use it, if at all, only for occasional picnics.

But did you notice an even briefer item in the society columns which said that Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Swanson had just returned from their second consecutive week-end on the Rapidan?

Our Navy secretary seems to know when to call out the Marines and where to send them.

NOTES

President Roosevelt told a congressman who called the other day to take his troubles to Budget Director Douglas.

About a week later the congressman called the President on the 'phone and wailed that he'd warned a chair in Douglas' ante-room for days without getting inside.

Mr. Roosevelt arranged an appointment for him.

After years of seeing Uncle Sam as the bogey man Latin America has experienced a change of heart if our confidential reports are to be believed.

Diplomatic pouch dispatches say President Roosevelt is being looked on as "The Great White Father."

No doubt our trade experts will play this situation across the board.

The boys in the White House press room are getting a little irritated about Secretary Louis Howe's weekly paid broadcasts.

They claim he's scooping them on stuff he ought to hand out freely.

Mostly they're mad because the Colonel told on the radio last Sunday about the President's sight-seeing tour on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

The White House had formally denied the Presidential yacht would make any stops.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

UNIONS
There will be plenty of scowling and table-thumping between the steel barons and organized labor.

But the disputants will not come to blows.

The government will see to that. It cannot afford to let the recovery program run aground on arguments over side issues.

Both sides can show their claws if it will make them feel better but they mustn't scratch. Compromises will be effected where no compromise seems possible.

The open shop principle is more of a sacred cow to the steel industry than to almost any other. Even the more progressive steel men get blood pressure at the thought of unionization from without. The government would rather let them have their way on this and get their co-operation on rebuilding purchasing power than to fight a compulsory licensing battle which would stir unrest in other industries. That's why labor will not be permitted to force the issue—at present.

There have been conferences in New York between labor leaders and financial men friendly to labor (there are such). As a result labor is privately willing to bide its time on unionization in consideration of immediate wage and hour benefits.

But for the record it will enter a strong protest against the steel industry's policy toward unions.

Insiders say that a couple of points in the steel code are straw men set up to be knocked down.

One is the provision that the president of a company shall be the final arbitrator in the event that representatives of employers and employees cannot agree. The other states that election of union officers must be held on company premises.

The industry will probably yield these points if pressed. That will give the labor leaders a couple of trophies to show the folks.

Eventually there will be a real battle on the open shop question. But it won't develop while recovery still hangs in the balance.

STEEL

Representation in carrying out the steel code from within will be rated on orders in dollars for the preceding year. That sort of puts U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and two or three other big fellows in the saddle to stay.

CUT-THROAT

Losses from price wars constitute a major reason why large steel, oil and copper corporations were easy to sell on the idea of trade codes. Small-time wild-carders have made their lives miserable and there wasn't a thing they could do about it. Raising wages and shortening hours was a cheap price for them to pay to get rid of this biting nuisance.

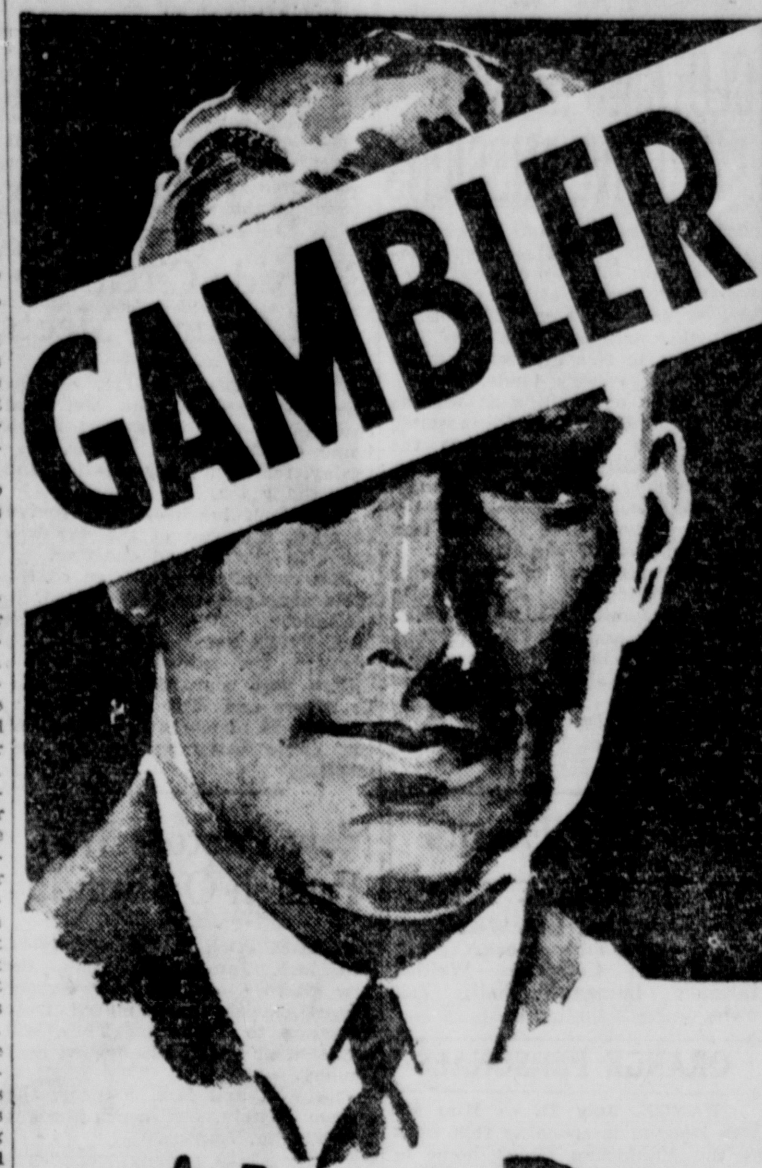

Thirty years ago it was exactly the other way around. In those days the giants started price wars to freeze out small competitors. That gentle practice led to the trust-busting era.

The difference today is not due to any superior virtue on the part of the big companies. But they have huge burdens in debt and senior capital to carry that they didn't have then. You can't play

HOOKS and SLIDES

by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

DID YOU KNOW THAT—
Eddie Gharitty, who used to catch that fast ball of Walter Johnson's when Walter was throwing it up there so it looked like a BB shot, has come back to the major leagues along with his old chief, at Cleveland. . . . Eddie still tells that story about his home run that went for Sweeney. . . . two were out, Frank Ellerbe was on first and Gharitty was at the plate. . . . Eddie caught one on the nose and it sailed far up into the left field bleachers. . . . Ellerbe somehow got the notion the ball had been caught. . . . Reaching third he turned and jogged to his position in the infield. . . . Gharitty steamed right on around, passing Ellerbe. . . . so there was nothing to do but call Eddie out.

GARDEN FINANCES
For some time there has been talk to the effect that Jimmy Johnston would be all through as matchmaker of Madison Square Garden when his contract expires in October.

Speculation reached almost the status of a cliché when the recent Carnera-Sharkey heavyweight championship fight failed to reach $150,000. And the Garden directors still have a headache over the Mara-Dempsey promotion of the Schmelling-Baer fight right in Madison Square Garden's own back yard.

NOT BAD, JAMES

But over the whole period of Johnston's matchmaking, a time of depression, especially during the last two years, the Garden has managed to show a net profit, and in one of those years a dividend. Of course there has been hockey, bicycle racing, horse shows, wrestling and other exhibitions than fighting—but until the Carnera-Sharkey thing, hampered by being staged just after the Baer-Schmelling bout, Johnston hadn't done badly at all.

The Garden's total income during the year ending May 31, 1933, was $2,557,262, according to a financial report just made available. Expenses during this period were $2,238,193. That meant a net profit of $319,069 and no dividends. Against this, the year ending May 31, 1932, showed an income of $3,092,492, against expenses of $2,597,564. The net profit was $1,594,928 and the dividend amounted to $54,721.

VALUES

The decrease in profit between '32 and '33 thus was $1,275,353. Mr. Johnston probably is ready to tell you that a few thousands of dollars can make an awful amount of difference in a man's popularity with his employees.

This report is for New York's Madison Square Garden alone, and does not include the Boston Garden, a partly-owned subsidiary.

How much is the New York Garden worth? Assets, including land, buildings, etc., were listed in the report at $4,622,142. Under liabilities, capital stock was listed at $3,175,517 and mortgages $1,200,000.

HOOKS, ALLISON LOSE TO BRITISH Stars Bid For Recognition Against Oilers

VICTORY WOULD PUT SANTA ANA IN TITLE RACE

Encouraged by its own improvement in particular and conference race developments in general, Santa Ana tonight makes its first serious bid of the season for recognition as a National Night league pinnacled contender.

The Stars play the first-place Huntington Beach club at the Municipal Bowl, so a victory for the Santa Anas will mean something. In fact, it would put them right in the thick of the second-half race.

Huntington Beach finished second to Torrance in the first-half, establishing itself as the most improved team in the confederacy. The Oilers have one of the best pitchers in the league in "Chico" Sabella and an all-star outfield with Ode Maness, Ory Schuchardt and Pete Osborn, the last being the league's best hitter in '32. The Oilers' infield has been highly satisfactory, too, with the clever Bob Smith at first base, Clarence Clemens or Francis Conrad at second, George Murray at third and the scrappy manager, Joe Rodgers, at shortstop. Merv Lowery does the catching.

Sabella will pitch here tonight, with the veteran southpaw, Howard Morning, in reserve. Sabella holds two victories over the Stars this season as against one defeat. The game he dropped to Santa Ana was through the timely batting of Rod Ballard who hit a homer with the bases full and a triple with one on.

Santa Ana's lineup may be strengthened by the return of Tommy Young, regular third baseman, who has been vacationing in Washington. Young, a .356 hitter, might not be available until Tuesday but Manager "Benny" Wilcox is holding out hopes that he'll show up in time to reenter the lineup. With Young back, Wilcox would send Tom Denney back to left field and probably shift young "Chub" Sears over to right.

Wilbur Stinchfield has been assigned to pitch, this being the kid's third "big game." He held Anaheim 5-3 and beat Westminster, 7-5. Wilcox will catch with Ed Daley at first base, George Preble second, "Memph" Hill at short and either Young or Denney on third.

An important change was announced in the Santa Ana pitching staff today. Manager Wilcox has registered Joe Cornelius as a moundman again but will carry Wilson Secord for utility purposes believing the Tustin schoolboy has good possibilities. Cornelius' fine spirit has impressed Wilcox who thinks Joe will be of great value for relief work.

Flyers Sign Three Players
George Lackey's Westminster Aviators travel to Torrance for a set-to with the first-half champions. Lackey has signed three new players: Floyd Montgomery, leading hitter of the Santa Ana City league; Joe Mene, former Anaheim outfielder, and Curt Youel, the U. S. C. football star. All three men will be in Westminster's lineup tonight, Youel at first base and Mene and Montgomery in the outfield. Earl Morrill will hurl for the Flyers.

Whittier, running a high pennant fever, plays at Fullerton. The Post's triumph over Torrance started something and Manager Frank Murphy has persuaded old "String" McDonnell to return to the fold and help "Chandy" Watson do the flinging. McDonnell had been negotiating with Santa Ana, Anaheim, Olive and Fullerton but has definitely decided to stay with Whittier.

THE STANDINGS:
Huntington Beach . . . 2-0 .1000.
Whittier . . . 2-0 .1000.
Inglewood . . . 1-1 .500.
Santa Ana . . . 1-1 .500.

Olive . . . 0-3 .000.

ANAHEIM CUFFS OLIVE FOR EASY VICTORY

Anaheim combed Cliff Hammond for 16 hits and an easy 8-2 victory over Olive at Olive last night. This was the Packers' third successive setback of the second-half.

The Valencas got three runs in the third, three in the seventh and two more in the ninth. Olive scored in the seventh and ninth.

Ora Sands, Olive's league-leading batter, got five successive hits.

Sands Hailed As DeMaggio Of Night Ball

The National Night Ball league has a Joe DeMaggio of its own.
Ora Sands, Olive infielder, has hit safely in every game this season. He ran his unbroken string to 24 last night when he collected five straight blows in a game with Anaheim.

By all odds the most sensational hitter ever to break into the league although few of his drives ever go out of the infield, Sands now has an average of .524. He has made 54 hits in 103 times at bat. No pitcher in the league has been able to keep him from bouncing his high infield hits which he easily beats out.

Another unusual thing about Sands is that he played in the Santa Ana City league several years without attracting any particular attention. He was not even the No. 1 batsman of that circuit.

ARMOUR SCORES SARAZEN, SAYS HE'S 'THROUGH'

BY JOHN C. HOFFMAN
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, July 21.—(UP)—"If Gene Sarazen's criticism of the P. G. A. was constructive it would be taken seriously, but he is not only washed up as a golfer, but consistently idiotic in every statement he has made in the last couple of years."

The scene is the palatial Medinah Country club and the speaker—Tommy Armour, former National open champion and a Scot who does not chew his cabbage under the table. It would seem from these scathing words that Tommy does not like Sarazen, nor does he like anything that Sarazen says. Sarazen, who has scathing statements for the press boys, but no golf title at the moment, does not seem to be the old gentleman of the game as he is becoming very bellicose by nature and inadequate regarding Sarazen's objections.

Regarding Sarazen's objections to the current mode of dress, the size of the golf ball and the manner in which the P. G. A. conducts its tournament, Armour said:

"Sarazen's outbursts are never constructive, always nonsensical and very harmful to the game. The fellow who lives in California has as much right to play in the tour tournament as the fellow who lives close to the scene of play. If his expenses were not paid the California pro would not come to the tournament and thus in the end the spirit of the thing would be ruined."

"Sarazen and all of us, for that matter, are in a parasitic game," went on Armour. "We are not necessary. Sarazen probably would be driving a garbage wagon for a livelihood were it not for the fact that by luck he happened to be a golfer."

Tommy was emphatic, even wrathful, in his declaration that nobody cared whether he or Sarazen or Hagen took part in the tournament at Milwaukee.

"There are plenty of young fellows who would," he said. "And they are the ones who are shooting the kind of golf that matters."

DEMPEY AND BRIDE NEAR LOS ANGELES

FRESNO, July 21.—Jack Dempsey and his beautiful blonde bride passed through Fresno today, en route to Los Angeles, where Dempsey will referee a charity boxing card and continue his honeymoon.

Dempsey said he planned to remain in Los Angeles a week and then to go east.

"I may go on a tour with Max Baer later," the former champion said. He added that his plans to promote a return match between Baer and Max Schmeling, one-time world heavyweight champion, in either Los Angeles or San Francisco were yet in the formative stage. "They may fall through," he said.

Mrs. Dempsey, the former "cheerful little earful" of the New York stage, dozed in their huge, expensive automobile while her husband alternated between answering questions and helping mechanics replace a broken fan belt which forced them to stop here for repairs.

They left Reno yesterday, Dempsey said, spent last night on Ancil Hoffman's ranch at Roseville, and started for Los Angeles this morning.

TROJANS MOURN TRAGIC DEATH OF TRACK STAR

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—(INS)—The body of Kenneth McKenzie, 21, University of Southern California senior, was to be returned here today from Sequoia National park where he was smothered to death in an ice cavern.

McKenzie sacrificed his life for the safety of his fiancée, pretty Miss Elsie Gilmore.

He had descended into the cavern to determine if it was safe for her to explore. She and two sisters watched an ice avalanche trap him.

McKenzie placed third in the javelin in the I. C. 4A track meet at Cambridge, Mass., and he held the U. S. C. record with a toss of 204 feet 11 1/2 inches.

JOE DAMAGGIO RUNS SWAT STREAK TO 58

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—(INS)—Joe DeMaggio, sensational 18-year-old batting champion of the Pacific Coast league, was only 13 hits away from the world record today.

The young San Francisco outfielder lengthened his consecutive hitting to 56 games last night by getting a single from Bill Hartwig, Sacramento's ace pitcher. The world record of 69 games, established in 1919, is held by Joe Wilhoit of Wichita in the Western league.

Providing the Santa Ana City league's second-half with its first major upset, the United Presbyterians decisively defeated the Santa Ana Elks, 11-4, at the Municipal Bowl last night. The Elks were first-half champions.

This victory sent the U. P. delegation roaring into first place, and established it as the favorite of the "new season." The churchmen knocked Sullivan out of the box in the sixth inning when it scored four times and clinched the ball game.

Stout, pitching for the Presbyterians, was hit hard in the first two innings but settled down and had things his own way the rest of the evening.

M. E. South, another church team, won from Weber's bakery, 12 to 8. Both sides put on a snappy finish, the South Methodists making five and the taidellers four.

Tuesday's schedule: Weber's bakery vs. Hoffman's, 7 p. m.; Baptists vs. M. E. South, 8 p. m.

COMMITTEE KILLS DOG RACE BETTING

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—(UP)—A proposal to permit pari-mutuel betting in California dog races on the same basis as approved by the electorate June 27 for horse racing was abruptly killed last night by the legislative joint rules committee.

A covering bill was introduced by Assemblyman Walter Sullivan, Compton. He claimed it would raise $3,000,000 in additional state revenue.

OREGON GETS RACING
PORTLAND, Ore., July 21.—(UP)—Horse racing with legalized pari-mutuel betting returned to Oregon today after more than a quarter century. The 30-day meeting under legalization of the last legislature, will be held at the Multnomah County Fair grounds.

Equipoise To Pack 135 For Big Handicap

CHICAGO, July 21.—(UP)—Equipoise, often called America's greatest race horse since Man O' War, will attempt to pack 135 pounds tomorrow in the $100,000 Arlington Handicap and beat a field of the best handicap horses in America.

C. V. Whitney shipped his great horse west to race in the Stars and Stripes at Arlington July 4 but scratched him because of the heavy impost, one pound more than he's carrying tomorrow.

Equipoise will go to the post fit and ready. But many expert horsemen do not believe he will be able to concede 10 pounds to Gallant Sir, champion of the West, 11 pounds to Plucky Play, Gallant Sir's stablemate which beat him last year and 27 pounds to Kerry Patch, fourth in the Arlington classic.

CATS CLING TO LEAD WITH 6-3 WIN AT ORANGE

Continuing to set a torrid pace for Orange County Night league ball clubs, Santa Ana's Green Cats beat Orange, 6-3, for its fourth straight victory of the second-half at Orange last night.

The Cats return to the Municipal Bowl Monday for one of their most important contests of the season, the second-place Irvine Beaniepicks.

Meal Youel pitched steady ball for Santa Ana, two of Orange's runs being homers, one by Bob Fargue in the eighth and another by his brother, Curt. He struck out eight and did not issue a walk.

The Cats scored twice in the first on hits by Secord, Andres, Youel and Leo Morse, and were never headed.

Olive, a first-half doormat, furnished a genuine surprise by defeating Huntington Beach, 8-2. Huntington Beach finished second to Santa Ana in the first-half but couldn't do anything with Pitcher Thomas in the pinches last night whereas Olive made all its hits yield runs.

Irvine slaughtered Anaheim, 13-5.

News Of Orange County Communities

MASS MEETING IS STAGED ON SCHOOL BUDGET

TUSTIN, July 21.—The Tustin elementary school board of trustees pointed out to the public in a mass meeting Wednesday night at the school, reasons for the adoption of a $41,506 budget for the carrying on of the school work here for the year 1933-1934. The budget had been decided on by the board at a previous meeting.

The itemized budget is as follows: administration, $440; instruction, $31,510; operation and maintenance, $3515; auxiliary agencies, $2840; total maintenance expenditures, $41,506. Last year the total budget was $45,152.32. Capital outlay, for repairing the grammar school building is $12,000.

President Bud Hannaford explained that there is a surplus of $5158 net to date, on hand from last year's budget, and that the board had saved $3877.82 on this year's budget, making a total of $9036.32. This total subtracted from the $12,000 anticipated as needed for reconstruction will leave $2936.32 to be raised and this will mean a school tax of 8 cents on the $100 assessed valuation. He said that if all went well, the board hoped to receive $3000 for the brick which they would have to sell. In the proposed plans, the building is to be made absolutely safe and earthquake proof.

Pelton Browning inquired how long the work would take and G. R. Seacord, trustee, replied that the reconstruction on the front half and two wings would probably be completed within five to six weeks.

President Hannaford stated that the board intended to make a community proposition out of the reconstruction work and would hire local men on the work wherever possible.

In reply to inquiry, the board disclosed that nothing had been allowed for the cafeteria, which will not be in operation until January, and will not open up then unless there is sufficient demand to justify it.

Inquiry in regard to the health department program, revealed that the board plans to take care of this outside of the county health department, at a saving of 50 per cent to the taxpayers.

C. A. Vance, president of the First National bank of Tustin, said that he thought that the board deserved a lot of credit for the work they are doing. Forrest W. Collar and J. C. Kirby also complimented the trustees.

President Hannaford announced that the next regular meeting of the school board would be at 7:30 p. m., July 26, at the school and that all taxpayers are welcome to attend this meeting, or any future meetings of the board, which are held the second and fourth Wednesday nights each month.

Cannery At Beach To Be Rebuilt

NEWPORT BEACH, July 21.—The old Newport Beach Fish Cannery has been taken over by a syndicate of Los Angeles men and is being rebuilt into a fruit and vegetable cannery. It is believed by those in charge that the new plant will when in full operation give employment to from 30 to 40 people. The company at present has a buyer in the territory contiguous to Newport Beach soliciting tomatoes for this season's run. They will be ready to start the plant operating within a week, it was stated. It was hinted that if the plans materialize as expected that the firm may equip the plant for the handling of fish during the winter months.

BUDGETS ARE ADOPTED BY SCHOOL BOARDS

GARDEN GROVE, July 21.—Making economy and school efficiency their goal, boards of education of the elementary schools met Monday evening and the high school Tuesday evening approving the budgets previously advertised and submitted to the county superintendent of schools.

No new employees or teachers were hired. As previously announced, two were dispensed with at the high school, W. G. Axworthy, orchestra leader, and one of the janitor force. This making a saving of 25 per cent in that department.

The total proposed expenditures $47,134 of the high school is approximately 20 per cent under that of last year according to Principal L. L. Dolg. This saving is affected through cuts in all expenses of the school, he explained. Only one taxpayer was at this hearing and he offered no objections.

A total of $8,000 was cut from the previous year's elementary school budget, this all being absorbed in salary cuts. However this will not immediately show in the tax rate according to Superintendent S. R. Fitz who explained that under a new budget ruling an undistributed reserve must be set up and $6,000 was allowed for this purpose, absorbing all but $2,000 of the cut.

However, a small cut will appear in the district tax, he said, and further explained that under the Stewart Riley law 41 per cent will be cut from the county elementary school taxes. The total proposed expenditures are for $72,425. No taxpayers were present at this meeting.

Pending sale of the high school bonds the board of that school is applying to the R. F. C. for a loan to repair the damaged administration building Principal Dolg stated. The state examiner is at the school this week and will probably submit his report by the end of next week.

The budgets now approved will be returned to the county superintendent and he in turn will submit them to the county board of supervisors.

First-run theaters pay as much as $10,000 weekly for the first use of big feature pictures; small houses get them much later for a daily rental as low as $7.50 and $10.

GIRL OF CHARM TO WIN TRIP TO CHICAGO FAIR

NEWPORT BEACH, July 21.—The winner of the Southern California Girl of Charm contest, being staged here in connection with the twenty-fifth annual Tournament of Lights tomorrow evening, will not only reign as queen of the lights pageant for a year, but be awarded a trip to the Century of Progress exposition at Chicago, with expenses paid, or the equivalent in cash, estimated as $175.

This announcement was made today by Harry H. Williamson, chairman of the Tournament of Lights committee, as final preparations for the big illumination fiesta in the bay tomorrow evening were nearing an end. Candidates for the queen job are to appear on floats or boats in the Tournament of Lights parade and final judging will take place Sunday, August 20, it was stated.

With airplane fireworks to be displayed by Martin airport fliers and two navy cruisers participating in the twenty-fifth annual lights festa promises to be the most spectacular of all.

Santa Ana, Anaheim, Long Beach, Pasadena, Escondido, Huntington Beach, Costa Mesa and Corona del Mar have entered community floats. Sea Scouts from Newport Beach, Long Beach and Fullerton are entering, as well as numerous yacht clubs, other organizations and private individuals.

Santa Ana will have last year's grand sweepstakes prize-winning Spanish troubadours, headed by Sol Gonzales, on a boat, publicizing the Fiesta del Oro there next week. Pasadena will use Tales of the Seven Seas in Flowers, theme of its next New Year's day parade. Anaheim, which last year showed Uncle Sam sawing wood to beat the depression, this year will have it loked with a "new deal." Escondido will show "sunshine, fruits and flowers," and its annual grape festival.

The city of Newport Beach will have a float showing "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" in recognition of this being the twenty-fifth annual lights fiesta, while Corona del Mar will have a decorated and illuminated gondola, also reminiscent of 25 years ago, for it was on August 23, 1908, that the "water carnival" consisting of a parade of a gondola and eight canoes, was staged, and this developed into the present big lights pageant.

The two navy cruisers, Chester and Salt Lake City, will not only participate in the celebration Saturday evening, but will be anchored off shore all day Saturday and Sunday. It is anticipated that visitors will be allowed on board both days, although the full program of the boats during their stay has not been announced. They are slated to reach San Pedro from San Francisco today and to anchor here early tomorrow.

Owing to the new routing of the parade and the traffic arrangements chamber of commerce and tournament officials stated today that everybody who comes to Newport, Balboa, Lida Isle and Balboa Island, as well as other adjacent vantage points will be able to see the parade without difficulty.

The judges, headed by Former Mayor M. J. Johnson, will take a boat at the yacht club after dinner there, inspect the boats at anchor, also the decorated houses and piers, later viewing the parade as it passes the reviewing stand at the Balboa pavilion ballroom.

OLD WELL IN BEACH FIELD DEVELOPS INTO GUSHER AS OIL ACTIVITY INCREASES

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 21.—The Coombs well on Seventeenth street between Walnut and Ocean avenue played with optimists today and turned from a 600-barrel pumper into a 1000-barrel gusher. Slowly the gas developed stronger coming up from nothing to 250 pounds pressure on the casing and finally crowding the pump until the walking beam was disconnected and the well allowed to flow under its own power. The crew was unable to get the rods out and the well is flowing with the rods in the tubing, and beamed down by the gauges.

This good well on Seventeenth street opens a new area to drilling and is a better well than the first well, the Viceroy, that came in around the golden sector at Twenty-second and Twenty-first streets between Walnut and Olive. More wells are to start at once in the Seventeenth street sector, one by the Bell Oil company, one the Laughlin well, on Walnut between Seventeenth and Sixteenth, the old Wilshire lots at Walnut and Seventeenth and the old Ahlburg well at Seventeenth and Walnut on the corner lots.

The Sunset-Pacific well on the alley on Seventeenth is also said to have been sold to a Long Beach group for immediate re-drilling. The old Ahlburg well is the scene of an oil field scrap as to leaseholder's rights. Two groups are claiming the well. Workmen sent by a Los Angeles group attempted to take possession of the well yesterday and were ordered off by the H. forces which are in possession. The dispute so far has been without violence.

Representative Craig's bill introduced as an emergency measure in the legislature to prevent whip-stock drilling, has aroused a storm of indignation in the field. The oil men and lot owners are enraged over what they term a move of the major companies to secure state aid in their fight to hold control of the town lot developed miserably. The field was ready for abandonment when the independents took hold of some of the most hopeless wells and converted them from wrecks into fabulously rich wells.

The major operators have refused to recognize the new development program as legitimate, taking no part in it. Ted Craig's bill would effectively retard any further development as it provides a heavy penalty for a well that does not end directly beneath the 25 or 50-foot town lot where it starts on the surface. Craig's bill recites that the purpose of the emergency measure is to protect the state's rich oil deposit under the ocean. It is clearly the forerunner of a tidal and ocean drilling measure which is shortly to be introduced, and which was at first refused endorsement of the county supervisors, and later a subsequent measure was given unanimous endorsement of the supervisors, without any plausible reason for the change of heart.

The independent oil operators and lot owners are planning to organize for a mighty fight for their share of the oil and to oppose to the last ditch the Craig emergency measure, according to a talk heard in the field here. The Craig bill is as unpopular in the oil field as was the famous Sharkey bill that was defeated by the voters. It is claimed the Craig bill will be referred to a vote of the people and that the independents will spend their last dollar to fight it.

MEXICO IS TOPIC FOR GROUP MEET

BUENA PARK, July 21.—"Mexico" was the topic for study at the meeting of the Missionary society yesterday afternoon in the Congregational church social hall with Mrs. J. B. Robinson in charge of the program.

She presented the history and geography of the country and a detailed report of the Congregational church mission work in that country. Territory was divided among the various denominations in 1919. Congregationalists assumed responsibility for the American mission board there in 1928.

Current events and letters from missionaries in various fields were read as a supplement to the program.

Articles on Mexico were read by Mrs. E. A. Kinney, Mrs. C. E. Crumrine and Mrs. Robert Bacon. Missionary society women are decorating the church for the month of July.

Mrs. Bacon was in charge of devotional and Mrs. C. E. Reid of community singing.

Mrs. Crumrine will have charge of the monthly brotherhood supper scheduled for Monday evening.

China or Africa will be the topic for the August 18 meeting.

B. & P. W. CLUB IS FETED AT GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, July 21.—Using a clever Scotch theme, Mrs. Alice Smith and Mrs. Helen Engen entertained members of the Business and Professional Women's Social club, Wednesday evening, at the former's home on East Stanford avenue. Members were asked to contribute to the program a Scotch joke for which points were awarded and added to the bridge scores.

The beautiful garden of the Smith home provided an artistic natural setting for the bridge tables. Fringed Scotch plaid was cleverly used in preparing the tables. Awards for high score were taken by Mrs. Alice Keele and Miss Ruth Ryan, the low award going to Mrs. Hilda Reafnyder.

Individual trays were used for the refreshment course which included a salad served in omelets, representative of the horn of plenty, loess, cakes and coffee. For lunch, a bench party was planned to replace the regular meeting with arrangements in charge of Mrs. Hilda Reafnyder.

Present as guests of the club were the Misses Clara Carmichael, Myrtle Ziegler and Della Tarsach of Omaha, Neb. Members present were Mesdames Genevieve Crosby, Alice Keele, Hilda Reafnyder, Nita Sparks, Mabel Wilkinson, Blanche Wisner, Misses Ann Ashley, Marcia Carmichael, Frances Duncan, Mabel Head, Clara Ohnstad, Ruth Ryan and the hostesses.

REPORT CROPS AT TALBERT TO BE EXCELLENT

TALBERT, July 21.—Vegetable crops around Talbert are looking exceptionally well this season and growers contemplate a fine harvest, according to reports.

The chili crops which are now in bloom, show evidence of a heavy crop this fall and the good prices being received now for the last year's crop argue well for the sale of the crop coming on.

Giant Squid Is Taken From Ocean

NEWPORT BEACH, July 21.—A giant squid, weighing over 50 pounds was taken by Pete Anich as he was fishing for black bass at Newport Beach. This is the largest fish of the family the 10-armed cephalopods, that is known to have been brought in here.

REQUEST CITY TO TAKE OVER ASSESSMENTS

SEAL BEACH, July 21.—A petition requesting that the city council take the necessary steps to have the county take over the assessing and tax collecting of the city was filed here today in the office of the city clerk.

It is understood that the city council is planning a campaign to inform the property owners of the community of the advantages of the present system of tax assessing and tax collecting. Under the present system the city is gradually reducing the deficit in the general fund which was incurred during the time that the county was collecting the taxes.

The tax rate has been substantially lowered each year that the city has handled the taxes; in 1931 the rate was $1.60, in 1932 it was $1.55; this year a reduction of at least 10c is to be effected. The last year that the taxes were collected by the county of Orange in 1930, the rate was $1.95 per $100 of valuation. Opponents of the change claim that the present system has been proven a success; records of the city show that the finances are in much better condition than at the time the city took over the assessing and tax collecting only two years ago. The combining of the tax department and the water department and placing both under one man allows the city to assess and collect the taxes at less expense than formerly as the water superintendent handles the work of both departments.

ASSAULT STORY TOLD JURY BY PRETTY HIKER

Clara Miller, pretty 18-year-old hiker, on trial with her older sister, Pearl, and F. W. Underwood, accused of burglary and grand theft, went on the witness stand yesterday in superior court, and told a sensational story of how Robert Allen, professional tennis instructor, assaulted her after slapping his face.

She was the first defense witness placed on the stand to refute charges that she and her sister and Underwood, after accepting the hospitality of Allen, stole his automobile, revolver and money and fled in the night. The case was continued until Monday.

According to her testimony the Miller girls and Underwood were hitch hiking to San Diego and were offered a ride by Allen. Shortly after entering the Allen car, according to her testimony, the trio was offered beer by their host. At Tucson he purchased more beer and drove to Laguna Beach, where more beer was purchased.

The Miller girl said that at Laguna Allen offered them the hospitality of the beach house for the night and said that he would drive them to San Diego the following morning as he was going there on business.

She told of their arrival at the beach house and of the purchase of alcohol and drinks that were served. She declined all drinks after the first, according to her testimony. Later in the evening, according to her story, Allen sent Underwood and Pearl Miller, the older sister, to get more alcohol.

While they were away the alleged assault took place. According to testimony of Clara Miller, her sister and Underwood had been gone but a short time when Allen started making advances to her. She repulsed him and Allen is alleged to have said, "You're not such a nice girl or you wouldn't be hiking around the country."

Allen grabbed her, according to her testimony, and despite her struggles.

When her sister and Underwood returned, she said, they found her in the bedroom with Allen and she told them of the assault. It was then, according to her story that the trio left and later were picked up by two men in an automobile and taken to San Diego.

The most damaging testimony against the trio was given by Mary Str. Anderson, negress, who was a cellmate of the two Miller girls for several weeks. She said that she heard the two girls talking, frequently, about the case and that Pearl said Allen was so drunk at the beach cottage that he did not know how much money he had.

She said the Miller girl admitted taking between $45 and $48 out of his pocket and the keys to his automobile.

The negress also said that Pearl had advised her younger sister to charge Allen with assaulting her despite the fact that the younger girl said that it was not true.

Underwood had just been called to the stand as the second defense witness when court adjourned until Monday.

To the Editor of "The Public Forum," Santa Ana Register, Santa Ana, California.
Sir:—

Now, I believe, is the time for a conservative change in Santa Ana's municipal government. The earthquake brought us to a realization of the importance of individual initiative in handling city government during a time of emergency.

Our old-fashioned form of government under state requirements for cities of the fifth class seems obsolete to me. Municipal government must change in accordance with the progress of our times!

Advocates of the city manager plan are fond of asserting that it is a business type of government, that it equip the city with the same effective mechanism that is possessed by a well-organized business corporation. The people, as the stockholders of the municipality, elect a small council, commission or board of directors. This body, in turn, appoints a city manager who directly controls all departments of administration. All RESPONSIBILITY is headed up, ward and inward to a common center. The city manager plan unifies the powers of government, yet it aims to preserve a separation between policies and routine, between planning and executing, just as a business organization does. In a word, quoting W. B. Munro, "the plan rests upon the assumption that city government is BUSINESS, not POLITICS or PHILANTHROPY."

I, now, challenge someone through this Public Forum to uphold the present form of city government in Santa Ana as being more efficient, responsible, and beneficial to the welfare of its citizens than would be the city manager plan which has been so successful in all "up-and-coming" cities throughout these United States.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES PARKER WILSON.

BUSINESS GAINS SHOWN IN REPORT
The preliminary June index of business conditions in the eight far-western states reached 59.5, an increase of 3.1 over May, according to Bank of America's Business Review, issued today, which points out that the increase in business activity in the western area from May to June represents the largest monthly gain since February, 1930.

Total building permits for the first six months of 1933 in 61 cities in the eight far-western states were $29,677,635, or 70.5 per cent above the same period in 1932.

The aggregate dollar volume of retail trade in June, 1933, about equaled the volume of sales in the corresponding month of last year, according to reports from 77 department stores in this district. This reflects a favorable condition, says the Business Review, considering the fact that the price level of department store merchandise has declined during the past year. The volume of retail sales in the whole United States in June, 1933, was four per cent below June of last year.

The number employed in manufacturing industries in California in June, 1933, increased 3.6 per cent over June of last year, and 4.2 per cent over May of this year. Bank debits for the 27 major cities in the twelfth federal reserve district reached the highest point of the year. Business failures were more than 26 per cent below the corresponding period of last year.

EXPERT GIVES FINE POINTS IN CANINES' CARE

Having exhibited and judged dogs for more than a quarter of a century in the United States and all the larger cities of Europe, J. A. Boegman, a recent arrival in Santa Ana, just can't get away from his hobby and is now preparing dogs for the show to be held in the Neal Sporting Goods store Saturday, July 29.

Boegman came to the United States a few years ago and settled in the east. However, he was caught, with thousands of others in the stock crash in 1929 and a fortune of six figures was wiped out.

Having spent most of his years in showing and judging dogs he came to California and is now endeavoring to build up his fortune again.

However, his love of dogs has kept his mind off his troubles and he has spent a great deal of his time trimming and preparing dogs for show.

While trimming one of the entries for the show next Saturday Boegman divulged some of his information to the writer.

Fine Distinction

"There are about a dozen wire haired terriers, which should be trimmed and clipped," said Boegman. "There is a great distinction between a clipped and trimmed terrier."

"The airedale and wire haired fox terrier, the Scottish and Irish terrier, the Sealyham and Kerry Blue terrier, the Cairn and West Highland white terrier, the Welsh terrier and Schnauzer have nice coats which should be hard and firm. They have two coats and by proper plucking the woolly soft under coat also the loose and dead hair are removed. A wire terrier with the appearance of a poodle doesn't feel in place. They like to be stylish and snappy. The wire gets its popularity by his snappy action and movements, which cannot be seen in a dog with long hair looking like a duster.

Clipping Easy

"Clipping is very easy but trimming so as to bring out the good points for the show so the dog will appear as near ideal to his breed is an art that takes years of practice."

Boegman does not give medical treatment to dogs and is strictly against home treatment of diseased dogs. He declares that a veterinarian should be called in when a dog is taken ill, saying that many a fine dog has been killed by wrong treatment.

"When showing a terrier be trimmed," Boegman was asked.

"A show dog should be kept in good condition at all times," replied Boegman. "As a general rule the best time for trimming is spring and fall when the hair is loose."

"Toe nails must be kept in good condition if they are uncomfortable and prevent the dog having the proper gait."

Dry Cleaning Best

"A wire haired terrier should seldom be washed with water and soap. Terriers are apt to lose their hard coat at least for some time by using soap. The proper way is to sponge them down and give a dry cleaning with powder, chalk or sawdust, depending on the breed."

"Trimming or stripping is not painful to the dog if done properly. Puppies usually are a little restive."

Boegman trains terriers for show and declared that they should have ring manners. It is very difficult to show or judge a dog that does not know how to behave, he said. He said it is a pity to see a nervous or frightened dog in the ring

EXPERTS URGED TO SUBMIT PLANS FOR IMPROVEMENTS UNDER U. S. RECOVERY PLAN

Urgent recommendations that county and city planning commissions, in co-operation with other public bodies, prepare and submit plans for public improvements as a part of the national unemployment relief and industrial recovery program, were voiced at a meeting of the Southern California district of the State Planning association, held yesterday afternoon at Ketter's cafe.

J. M. Paige, of Pomona, chairman of the Regional Planning commission of Los Angeles county, presided over the meeting, which was attended by representatives of Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, San Bernardino, Riverside, San Diego, and Orange counties. Among those present were Supervisors William C. Jerome and Leroy Lyon, former supervisor Charles H. Chapman, and the members of the county and the Santa Ana city planning commissions.

3 More Projects

The first speaker to be introduced was the chair Louis W. DeWall, member of the San Diego county planning commission, who reported that his county, in response to the appeal sent out by the national administrator in undertaking public improvements as an unemployment relief measure, has three major projects under consideration. He also stated that the policy of San Diego county was to employ as far as possible unemployed persons, this to create employment. The county zoning ordinance, he explained, has enabled the commission to effect a more effective check on subdivision projects.

Support of a county zoning ordinance as being both practicable and desirable, was voiced by A. E. Williamson, zoning engineer of the Los Angeles County Planning commission. The speaker pointed out that Los Angeles county was the first one in the nation to adopt a zoning ordinance.

Urges Proper Zoning

Proper zoning, undertaken on a comprehensive scale, is the best and cheapest investment a community can make, and will result in savings both to the public and the individual property owners it was asserted.

He urged the Orange county planners to go slow in drafting zoning ordinances so as to avoid mistakes, and he also warned them against permitting any political influence to affect their decisions.

L. DeWing Tilton, member of the Santa Barbara County Planning commission, in reporting that the northern county is planning several improvement projects, called attention to the fact that it is a desire to employ labor on such projects that sooner or later will have to be undertaken. At the present time, he added, large sums of the taxpayers' money are being expended for welfare relief without any lasting benefit to the public. Instead of distributing relief payrolls over projects of little or no value, the speaker suggested that the same money be used on undertakings of real value to the taxpayers. In line with this policy, he continued, Santa Barbara county is giving thought to water conservation, elimination of grade crossings and other projects of permanent value.

Reports On Code

An instructive as well as entertaining report on the workings of the Los Angeles county building code, was given by William J. Fox, chief engineer of the Los Angeles County Regional Planning commission. The disastrous effects of the earthquake, revealing defects both on construction and materials, removed suddenly whatever opposition there had been to a county building code, it was stated. The code, as adopted by the county supervisors, covers the entire unincorporated territory of Los Angeles county, and there are no exceptions.

The operation of the county building code, the provisions of which make it necessary to secure a permit for the reconstruction of a chicken coop or a roadstand, has proved satisfactory, and has met with little opposition, Fox declared.

San Diego was selected as the place of the next district meeting. Among those present were J. M. Paige, Pomona; B. F. Shrimpton, West Hollywood; A. E. Williamson, Los Angeles; L. DeWing Tilton, Santa Barbara; F. J. Hansen, Ernest R. Childs, Andrew S. Wilson, Edgar T. Hastings and Louis W. DeWall, all of San Diego; A. E. Isham, Redlands; E. W. Jamieson, Ontario; H. CITY SWEEPER PROBLEM TAKEN UP NEXT WEEK

Confronted with the possibility of having Santa Ana streets swept by hand, city officials are expected to take action Monday night at the council meeting to settle the question of how city sweeping is to be done in the next few months.

When a truck crashed into the city sweeper on Santa Ana boulevard several weeks ago, an old discarded sweeper built in 1924 was pressed into service until the wrecked machine could be repaired. This temporary service is still being continued but City Engineer J. L. McBride has reported that the old machine may break down any day and make it necessary to employ laborers to sweep the streets by hand, a very expensive method.

Because of the age and poor condition of the sweeper being used, it is being operated only a few hours a day, principally in the business section. Many complaints have been received from residents that streets are not being cleaned, McBride declared, but nothing can be done at this time. The city received a judgment of $3000 for the wrecked sweeper and can either fix it up or buy a new machine. The damaged vehicle, built in 1926, has already traveled over 80,000 miles. The city also owns a third sweeper, built in 1920, which has been junked for several years.

If a new sweeper is purchased by the city council the wrecked sweeper can be repaired sufficiently by city employees to provide a utility machine for emergency work. Parts from the two older machines could be used for part of the repairing, it was said.

EVANGELIST

WOMAN CONDUCTS SERVICES IN S. A.

A revival is in progress at the First Church of the Nazarene, Fifth and Parton street, under the auspices of the Young People's society of the church, with the Rev. Myrtle M. White as evangelist.

The Rev. Mrs. White has had wide experience in evangelistic work among young people. Besides having held revivals and conventions throughout many of the states, she spent a number of years in India as a missionary. In recent years she has been associated with her husband, Dr. R. H. White, in the pastorate in Southern California, having recently closed their pastorate at the Whittier Church of the Nazarene. Mrs. White's message is expected to be of special interest to young people.

Services are being held throughout the week at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. The public is invited to all services.

LIGHTS EVENT IS SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY

With airplane fireworks and searchlights from two naval cruisers added to numerous other kinds of illumination, the 25th annual Newport Balboa Tournament of Lights, the West's greatest illuminated water pageant, will be staged in Newport bay tomorrow evening from 8 to 10 o'clock.

In recognition of the silver anniversary of this unique Southern California event, the two navy vessels will be off Newport and Balboa both Saturday and Sunday, and will be open to the public during visiting hours. Many surrounding communities are co-operating in the parade, by entering decorated and illuminated floats and boats, and nearly every organization in the harbor district, as well as scores of private boat owners, will be represented.

The route and traffic control control have been so arranged this year that 100,000 or more spectators may view the parade conveniently and comfortably along its five-mile route in the bay. It will start north of Lido Isle, going around its eastern end, westerly along its south shore, then easterly along the entire Newport-Balboa peninsula and finally past Corona del Mar and along the south shore of Balboa Island.

Many of the floats and boats this year will have music, and all will be beautifully illuminated. The two chief objectives are beauty and illumination. No theme or style is necessary, although the silver anniversary of the event is being marked this year by those entrants who desire to show in some way "a quarter century of progress."

Only six or seven persons in a million are struck by lightning, according to estimates.

Mother and Daughter Join in Welcoming Friends at Tea

Recent completion of the beautiful ranch home of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Otto S. Russell on Orange-horpe road beyond Anaheim, has been of much interest to the Santa Ana friends of the family. During the long pastorate of Dr. Russell at First Baptist church, yesterday afternoon these friends were given opportunity to see the new home when Mrs. Russell and her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Russell Weeks, entertained at a tea of unusually pleasant nature.

The home, suggesting the galleried architecture of the old South, is so designed that the living quarters rest above the trees of the orange grove in which it is so pleasantly located. Sun porches and galleries, to say nothing of the wide windows, overlook a beautiful prospect of groves and the misty La Habra hills, and the view was only one of the many charms upon which yesterday's guests dined.

To Receive Guests
Mrs. Russell was gracious and lovely in printed chiffon whose dominant tones were green, while Mrs. Weeks wore a frock in starched chiffon with wash and ripple sleeve caps of cherry red. All those assisting were pretty, airy frocks of soft silk, georgette and similar summer materials, adding to the colorful quality of the scene.

Mrs. W. H. Harrison and Mrs. Robert E. Coulter tendered their aid throughout the rooms, while at the tea hour, Miss Lula Minter and Mrs. L. C. Fairbanks took their place at a lace-draped table where Miss Minter served the ice cream roll while Mrs. Fairbanks poured tea. The table was most inviting, with its silver compotes of dainties flanking a great cluster of flowers in all the soft colors of the rainbow.

Mrs. Cassius Paul, Mrs. E. Neil Stanley, Miss Adele Rundstrom, Mrs. Weeks and Miss Black assisted in serving the petit fours, chocolate squares, mints and salted nuts of the tea menu.

Many Friends Call
Scores of guests called during the afternoon, chatted with their hostesses, greeted each other after vacation wanderings far afield, and made their tours of inspection of the home from the sun room with its striking modernistic furniture, to Dr. Russell's study on the first floor with its deep fireplace, book-lined walls and comfortable deep chairs.

The majority of guests were from Santa Ana, although Mrs. W. W. Crosier drove up from Balboa, and was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mildred Crosier of Los Angeles, and there were the several Los Angeles relatives, Mrs. Black, Miss Black and Miss Ballow, while Mrs. Pope C. Hill of Pasadena, is spending the summer in Santa Ana and also present to renew old friendships.

Birthday Anniversary Quietly Celebrated
It was with the feeling of being an honor guest that Franklin G. West took his place at the head of the dinner table last night in his home, 2425 Valencia street, for Mrs. West had planned a delightfully intimate little dinner in celebration of his birthday anniversary with a candle-dinner menu.

Mrs. Pope C. Hill (Marguerite West) of Pasadena, and her small son Winston, completed the intimate little group. Mrs. Hill is spending summer weeks in Santa Ana, but with Master Winston, plans to leave early in August for a stay in northern California mountains, possibly Lake Tahoe.

YOU and your Friends
Miss Lida E. Crookshank, 802 French street, accompanied by her niece, Miss Eleanor Crookshank of Lemon Heights, returned to Wilmington yesterday on the S. S. Santa Ana, which sailed from New York via Havana and Panama.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Walker, 511 West Third street, entertained as guests this week, Miss Helen Lockhart of Bellingham, Wash., the daughter of old friends of Oklahoma days, and her Southland traveling companion, Miss Leah Tass of Seattle, Wash. The two left yesterday for Los Angeles, preparatory to starting north next Monday by bus. They are young teachers in the schools of their respective cities and have been enjoying a vacation visit in California with Los Angeles as their headquarters. They came south by boat but are taking the bus route northward in order to see the Redwood highway and other points of scenic beauty in California and in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Reyer, 2824 North Broadway, are entertaining this week end, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Emerson and son Donald, of Salinas.

Miss Mary DuBois, Miss Eleanor Mitchell, and Messrs. George Brenner and W. I. Noble comprised a little party motoring to Los Angeles yesterday to spend the day with friends in that city.

Trio Of Honor Guests Complimented At Reception
When Mrs. Elmer Hayward and her daughter, Mrs. Stanford Cole, joined Wednesday afternoon as hostesses in the former's home, 462 South Cambridge street in Orange, they complimented a trio of charming young women at a reception and tea.

Honored guests were another daughter of Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. Fred M. Burlew, who returned home recently from a year spent in Boston; Miss Frances Hallman of New York City, who is spending a month here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hallman, East Chapman avenue, Orange, and Miss Julia Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Cummings, East Walnut avenue, Orange. Miss Cummings' engagement to James Williams of Arden, Nev., was announced at a beautifully appointed luncheon given recently by her mother.

Forming a receiving line at the door to greet the half hundred or more guests, were the two hostesses and their honorees, and completing the group was little Jeanie Cole, Mrs. Stanford Cole's small daughter, quaintly garbed in Chinese costume.

Gladioluses and delphiniums were arranged in colorful clusters throughout the home. From a table daintily appointed in varying tones of pink, the appetizing refreshments were served with Mrs. F. E. Hallman and Mrs. William N. Cummings presiding at the tea and coffee urns. A group of young women, close friends of the three honorees, assisted in serving.

At intervals during the afternoon, Miss Charlotte Hollister played appropriate piano selections.

Girl Scout Troop Plans Beach Outing
Plans were completed for a beach party to be held at the White Bridge at Balboa Beach, July 27, at the regular meeting of Girl Scout Troop No. 4, held yesterday afternoon at the First M. E. church. Miss Mildred Kemper and Miss Jean McAuley, who led group singing at yesterday's meeting, will be special guests at the beach party. A variety of games offered entertainment and new songs were learned at the meeting. Twenty-two were present.

Young People Enjoy Gay Beach Party
Motoring to Huntington Beach Wednesday evening, a group of lively young people of high school age joined in a beach party of enjoyable features. First Christian Aid
At their July meeting held recently in the educational hall of the church, members of the First Christian Aid society made many interesting plans for a continuation of activities during the remaining summer season.

Chief among these plans was that of one of their famous "26-Cent Dinners" for the night of August 30, when Congressmen Sam Collins has consented to be their speaker. Because of the general interest in a talk by a congressman, the Aid society members are making this dinner a public affair, and all those interested are asked to reserve the date on their August calendars.

Mrs. T. D. Knights, aid society president, conducted the recent meeting which dealt largely with business matters in connection with the society's welfare and community projects. Plans were made also for the regular August meeting when a country store will be a special feature.

Church Societies

First M. E.
Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church met Tuesday afternoon in the social hall, with Mrs. J. F. Burke presiding.

During the business session, announcement was made of a party for members and past presidents of the auxiliary, to be held in the home of Mrs. Theo Wimbler sometime in August. Members of the auxiliary were also invited to attend the regular meeting of Doris Welles' group to be held at 7:30 p. m. in the chapel on August 14.

Miss Welles wrote a vivid description of her home life there. Mrs. Alice Price, in charge of devotion, used "Clear Streams" as her topic. Mrs. C. N. Grace then sang "No Disappointment in Heaven," accompanied by Mrs. W. B. Snow.

Echoes from the branch quarterly held recently in Santa Monica were given by several delegates including Mesdames C. P. Kellogg, Sarah Hutchinson, Fred Wager, A. J. Seamy, Eldora Demarest, Laura Leonard, A. Vandermaast, Mrs. Allen and Miss Hay.

Special guests of the afternoon were seven members of the Mexican Methodist church, who presented two vocal numbers, "I Am Not Alone," and "His Grace Is Enough For Me," in Spanish.

St. Peter's Lutheran
Mrs. L. Buchfink was pleasantly honored on her birthday Monday, when members of Circle 3 of St. Peter's Lutheran church surprised her with a flower shower given at the Alfred Preisel cottage in Laguna Beach.

Following presentation of the many lovely and fragrant bouquets a covered dish luncheon was served, topped off by a huge wedding cake. In keeping with this theme was the amusing mock wedding which was given later in the afternoon. Thirty-eight members and guests were present.

United Presbyterians
Berean chapter of the United Presbyterian church spent a pleasant afternoon Tuesday in the home of Mrs. W. W. Hoy, 1225 French street. Mesdames Albert Finley and Scott Thompson were co-hostesses. room. When he joined her she began impatiently:

"I could hear exasperatingly well with both doors open and fairly well with one closed. I'd say that if both were open Mr. Statlander is certainly very much in it but that if just one were closed he is pretty likely to be. So we must find out surely how his door was last night."

Tom sat down and passed a handkerchief over his hot forehead.

"Now," he said, "forget Statlander for the moment and the squeak and the towel and the shirt and the rest. We must go down."

and you must find an excuse to talk to Statlander. But—I found something in that room, Blinks.

"Oh! What?"

"A book—a commonplace, heavy looking book. By M. Pratt."

"What—what's that? I didn't know Marvin wrote. Where is it?"

Tom's mouth set firmly. "Put away, my darling child. Naughty, naughty. I had time only for a hasty glance—but oh, my! It's what would be classed in collector's catalogues and libraries as 'erotic'."

"Marvin!" The exclamation was utterly incredulous.

"Exactly. Well, it seemed to have, ostensibly, a high moral purpose. Supposed to be about decadent religious translations—but somehow, from the little I saw, it was a case of protest too much. No, I'm afraid our Marvin slipped then—it was 10 years ago, incidentally, Blinks, when he was younger and more callow—but he didn't quite put over his purely scientific motive."

"But—there—in Cousin Amos' room—?"

"Remember the old man threw his handkerchief over something and you supposed that he had some snappy reading besides Marcus Aurelius? You were darned right—but you little knew how snappy!"

"But did he bring it—how did he get hold of it—?"

"Don't ask me. I'd say offhand he didn't bring it. It's an awfully big book and he had only that little bag. I think he came on it somewhere here—one of those old bookcases of Aunt Candace's. It looks dusty and neglected. I've always told you you should go over those books. Weed them out for valuable first editions and give the rest to the junkman."

"I'm always meaning to. They look so depressing!" Linda was at best no book-lover and depended on the circulating library or casual purchase of current successes for her reading matter. "But still I don't see—"

"Wake up, Blinks! Marvin tried to get in there, didn't he?"

"Oh—yes—"

"And you felt there was something more than rage against Cousin Amos—Sort of apprehension, you said—"

"That's so. Oh, Tom, I see it, I see it!"

"Of course! Why he was afraid you'd talked together, why he wanted to prevent—"

"What Cousin Amos was raging him about—but how did he find it?"

"That's so. Oh, Tom, I see it, I see it!"

"What Cousin Amos was raging him about—but how did he find it?"

Somehow the old man got hold of it—"

"And threw it up to Marvin—"

"And Marvin was aghast at this early effusion coming to light—probably thought it lived down by this time—and feeling as he does about you—"

"Tom!"

"Well, you can't deny he likes you, Blinks, and as a result of your early acquaintance he thinks of you as a sort of kid compared to him—"

"Um, yes—I suppose so. Oh, Tom, how did Aunt Candace ever get it into her rows and rows of respectable old standbys?"

"That, my darling, is a mystery we do not have to solve, thank fortune! Our problem is who got it out—and whence, and how."

"Tom—it's high tide!"

"I know. We simply must go."

They all want a swim. We'll think about this—I don't know just how it fits in but it's no end mysterious. Come on and round' em up. Don't forget you're to vamp Statlander. Haven't anything to report on the interview before breakfast, have you?"

Linda gurgled with reminiscent laughter.

"Nothing but a perfectly outrageous performance by Mr. Shaughnessy. The way he rescued me from a Statlanderish inequity—well, I'll tell you about it later. I didn't get a chance to ask questions. Now wait a minute till I remember all I was to ask. We've wandered so far from him—Towel—balcony railings—door—yes, there is plenty. And here's where I pin him down!"

Interest Shown In Sontag Plan

Considerable interest has been aroused among the shopping public of this community through the announcement that the Sontag Drug stores are giving away absolutely free five fully paid first class trips to the Chicago world's fair. These trips include railroad fare both ways, with Pullman, room and bath in first class hotel in Chicago for four nights, $50 for incidental expense money, admission tickets to the world's fair, cab fare to and from the hotel and a complete sight seeing tour of Chicago. Complete information is available now at all Sontag Drug stores in Southern California. A. C. Otto, a Sontag executive in charge of all arrangements for these trips made the following statement: "For 11 years, Sontag's lower prices on drugs, tobaccos and sundries have saved Californians thousands of dollars. These fully paid trips to the Chicago world's fair should attract many new customers to our stores who may not only gain an opportunity of seeing this world's fair absolutely free, but will also profit by buying their needs at Sontag's lower prices."

With Certo and the Certo recipes you can put up double the amount of jelly or jam in the usual time, too. Certo, you see, cuts your boiling time for jellies to only one-half minute. And jams rarely require more than one minute. Hence you can make a complete batch in 12 minutes or less from the time the fruit is prepared.

And Certo will give you better tasting jam or jelly. All the fresh fruit flavor will be kept intact.

And because no fruit juice has time to boil away, you'll get as much as one-half again more glasses from the same amount of fruit.

So get your fruits today. And get your Certo, too. That's all you need to start right now to fill your cupboard with delicious jams and jellies—that will delight your family all winter long! Certo is a product of General Foods. Get it at your grocer's.

4 Reasons FOR ALWAYS USING CERTO

- 1 Reduces boiling time. (Jellies take 1/2 minute. Jams rarely more than 1 minute.)
- 2 Saves the fresh fruit flavor.
- 3 Gives half again more glasses.

JAM AND JELLY RECIPES LISTED

Black Raspberry Jelly
2 1/2 cups (13-4 lbs.) juice
1 1/2 cups (3 1/4 lbs.) sugar
1-2 cup lemon juice
1 bottle fruit pectin
To prepare juice, remove larger stems from about 4 pounds fully ripe berries; place in kettle and crush. Heat gently until juice starts to flow, then simmer, covered, 15 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan; add lemon juice and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1-2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Cherry Jam
(Any kind except wild cherry or chokecherry)
4 cups (2 lbs.) prepared fruit
7 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin
To prepare fruit, pit about 2 1/2 pounds fully ripe cherries. Crush thoroughly or grind. Add 1-4 cup water, bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 15 minutes. (For stronger cherry flavor, add 1-4 teaspoon almond extract before pouring.)

Measure sugar into large kettle. Add prepared fruit, packing each cup solidly and filling up the last cup with water, if necessary. Mix well and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 3 minutes. Remove from fire and stir in fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit.

With whole cherries, ladle off a few glasses of hot clear syrup for jelly. Then fruit will not float. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Red Raspberry Jam
4 cups (2 lbs.) prepared fruit
6 1/2 cups (3 1/4 lbs.) sugar
1-2 bottle fruit pectin
To prepare fruit, crush or grind about 2 quarts fully ripe berries. Measure sugar and prepared fruit into large kettle, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 10 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Blackberry Jelly
4 cups (2 lbs.) juice
7 1/2 cups (3 1/4 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin
To prepare juice, crush thoroughly or grind about 3 quarts ripe berries. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire, and at once add fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1-2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

The male paradise fish is the real homemaker of the family; first he makes a nest and carries each newly spawned baby to it and then spends his time fighting off the mother to prevent her eating the youngsters alive.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

All of a sudden Shrimpy cried, "Hey, why not let the whole bunch ride? There's room enough for six of you inside that carriage shell." "All right," said Scouty. "I don't mind. I know that Goldy, too, is kind. As long as every one of us can ride, we may as well."

Then Shrimpy loudly shouted, "Whoa! Stand still, now, and don't dare to go until the Tinies climb aboard. Then I will lead the way."

"I'm thinking of a place right now that we can all get to, somehow. I'll furnish all the Tiny-mites some real nice fun today."

As soon as everyone was in, wee

Dotty shouted, with a grin, "We're ready. Let's be on our way, but please don't go too fast."

"Gee, if you do, there is no doubt but what I'll topple and fall out. I like this riding very much, so I want it to last."

The little sealhorse moved along and not a single thing went wrong. Of Shrimpy stayed up in the lead to show the kids the way.

"My, he can swim," said Dotty. "Gee, he's just as speedy as can be. If we were in a game of tag, I'd hate to have him play."

All of a sudden Coppy said, "There's something very red ahead. Why, it looks like a little house. Is that where we are bound?"

"It is a schoolhouse," Shrimpy cried. "And that's where we will end our ride. We'll rap upon the coral door. A teacher will be found. We'll meet the class, then, if you wish. You've often heard of schools of fish." And now we're going to see one," exclaimed Goldy, with a grin.

The little door was opened wide and then a teacher came outside. She nodded to the Tinies and invited them all in.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Potatoes O'Brien

4 very large potatoes
1-2 cup grated sharp cheese
1-4 cup soft butter
2-3 cup hot milk
Salt, pepper, paprika
4 tablespoonfuls minced green onion.

The four large potatoes make eight halves, and the same number of servings.
Split the potatoes after baking and scoop the pulp into a warm bowl. Add the butter to the potato, and the hot milk as you get under way with the beating they'll have to take. When the potatoes are as light as a feather, season them, fold in most of the cheese and all of the minced onion.
Pile back into the shells, sprinkle tops with more cheese and dots of butter. Bake 15 minutes longer in a quick oven.

Zucchini, Spanish Style
2 pounds zucchini
1 bunch green onions
1-4 cup salad oil
1 green pepper, minced
4 or 5 fresh tomatoes, peeled
Salt, pepper, paprika, cayenne.
Zucchini is a variety of summer squash. It needs no peeling, just wash it and slice thin.
In a skillet put the salad oil, onion, green pepper and tomato and saute for 15 minutes. Add the zucchini and the seasonings. Simmer this mixture for an hour or longer, stirring frequently. It should be thick and fairly smooth when done.

If you like a dash of garlic in your hot foods you may add it to the zucchini. I like it in mine, in fact a judicious little sprinkling of garlic helps everything but deserts and breads in my estimation.
Like curry, garlic needs long,
slow cooking to ripen and take away its rough edges.

The Potatoes O'Brien and our zucchini make a mighty good meal between them. Forget meat for this time and serve these two with a good salad, and an easy dessert.

Each half potato has a calory value of 200, chiefly energy units.
Each of the six servings of zucchini has a calory value of 160,
most of which belongs to the oil,
an intensive source of energy.

MANAGING ROYAL HUSBANDS

A story has been in circulation that an enterprising magazine publisher had succeeded in getting the promise of a series of articles from Queen Mary of England on the subject "Managing a Royal Husband."

The announcement was so preposterous that no person of intelligence gave the report any credence. Had the story been told of the former Queen Marie of Roumania it might have been believed, for that royal personage, it may be recalled, sold herself quite generally to the advertiser for a financial consideration. Europe is thick with royalties out of a job, and ready to turn their energies in any direction to make a few dollars to eke out a very precarious existence.

But the reigning House of Windsor in England is firmly entrenched in its royal position. No monarch in this world sits upon a more stable throne than George V. Writing to gratify the prurient curiosity of the crowd, either to gain a momentary notoriety or to earn some "pin money," cannot for a moment enter the mind either of the Queen of England or of any member of the royal house.

Yet the clever advertiser and publisher have been very successful in achieving the impossible. When we see advertisements, in which notable figures are pictured as endorsing one nostrum or another, it is not surprising that such a story as that attributed to Queen Mary should find its way into the public prints. It has been said that the advertiser has been able to buy every notable he ever approached if the sum offered only were large enough. The only exception seemed to be a member of the old Brahmin aristocracy of New England. It is reported that one of the best advertising solicitors was sent to get a member of that aristocracy at any price. Many of them were approached, but all turned down the proposition with scorn. The solicitor finally learned of a scion of one of these families who had gone broke. Surely, here was one who would fall and give his illustrious name to the advertiser. He was approached. A large sum was offered for the use of his illustrious name. But even he, broke as he was, turned the proposition down with contempt.

THE FIESTA DEL ORO

In a few days the Fiesta Del Oro will open in our city. This pageant bids well to draw the largest crowds to Santa Ana that have appeared on any similar occasion. It is anticipated that probably the people who will be in the city of Santa Ana during that period, would not be exceeded at any time in the history of the city, unless it be on the anniversary of Armistice Day.

It will not only be a period of amusement and recreation, but pictorially there will be presented the story of California's history, in such a manner as will not only give enjoyment, but will fix it in the memory as no oral story could possibly do. The dress and the customs and the means of transportation and the picturesqueness will all be shown. And we will be able to experience, in a sense, the joys and sorrows, the games and the customs of those other days.

It is well that this should be done. To those who have been reared on the Western coast, the background of California's history has an infinitely deeper meaning than it has for those who come from the East, and who trace their beginnings directly or indirectly, out through the founding of Plymouth.

There is a vast difference in the background, considerable difference in the purpose, and all the difference in the world in the unfolding history of our Eastern slope, as we find the Puritan and Cavalier finally joining together in the American Revolution.

Here entirely different spring form the stream of our history. And it is traced through Mexico, the Indians, the Spaniards, and finally the American pioneer.

We are anticipating these days with pleasure, in which we expect to highly profit. Whatever may have prompted various ones in joining to make this a great occasion, certainly the spirit of the planned pageant has caught those who have it in charge, and those who are co-operating to make it a success.

The city and the county, and even the people from beyond our borders, should plan for a period when they can relax and enjoy, and so drink from the fountains of historic lore, in the background of our adopted state, that California may become more meaningful to us in the passing days.

A CARTOON THAT TELLS THE STORY

In a recent number of the Manchester Guardian, England's most liberal newspaper, there appeared a cartoon which tells the whole story of the failure of the Economic conference at a glance. The cartoon was reprinted in a recent issue of The Nation, and is worth studying.

First it represented Ramsay MacDonald, with arms outstretched and eyes turned upward, saying, "that the thaws of the wurruld were with them. They must co-operate." The next comes M. Daladier, saying that "France favored co-operation in so far as it gave other nations the opportunity to make sacrifices for France." Next appears Mr. Chamberlain saying "He believed in co-operation if it gave Britain the advantage over other nations." Signor Young of Italy also supported co-operation "if Italy got the thick end of the deal."

Then follows an interlude during which Herr Dollfuss of Austria was led on a leash, "exhibited free of charge." After this, Baron Neurath says "Germany would co-operate if everybody would give Germany something." Then appears Litvinoff of Russia who said "That all the capitalist system needed was a stick of dynamite. It was felt that he was trying to turn the occasion into an Economic conference, and he was voted no gentleman."

Finally, the representatives of the United States are pictured, with the remark, "The Conference then adjourned, the hall being needed for a conference of the Americans, to decide who has their policy, if any."

There in a few vivid sketches we have the reasons why European or World conferences prove so futile. The world had large hopes when the Economic Conference opened in London. But every nation brought forward its own interests, with the silly and senseless expectation that such selfish standards could ever eventuate in anything but failure. What is wrong with our statesmen? Or, perhaps, more to the point, what is the matter with human nature? Self-interest tells the whole story.

JEWS ARRESTED IN NUREMBURG

An astounding event is reported in the news today. It occurred in Nuremburg, Germany, where between two hundred and three hundred Germans were arrested and paraded through the main streets of the city. The story would be unbelievable if similar events were not so frequently reported as occurring in Germany. Where there is so much smoke, even the skeptical must believe there is some fire.

Without alienating sympathy from these suffering Jews in Germany it is interesting to call attention to an incident of which one is reminded by the news. In Edgar Ansel Mowrer's book "Germany Puts the Clock Back" he describes it.

"My friend, the banker," he says, "is an Israeli. His nose is of the super-Hittite sort, his gestures are Oriental in amplitude, his manners are correctly cosmopolitan and his business interests are scattered throughout half a dozen countries. Yet to a somewhat bewildered gathering in a drawing-room in plutocratic Berlin, he unctuously explained how for years he had been a heavy subsidizer of the National-Socialists, a group of people whose war cry runs: 'Germany awake and perish the Jews.' No one who knows the banker could possibly imagine him subject to suicidal mania. Why therefore did he seek to strengthen a movement that wrote upon its boldest banner his own extinction as financier and Jew? A cynic might suggest that he hoped by his assistance to purchase a physical and financial immunity for himself in the expected Third Empire. But he did not say that. He explained that he was supporting his avowed despisers because they were 'friendly to capital.'"

It is a wise man who knows his friends and his enemies.

Welcome, Governors!

San Francisco Chronicle
When the twenty-five Governors cross the State line Saturday midnight they will be given a salute two guns bigger than has ever before been accorded a Conference of Governors. Those two extra guns will be a prelude and a promise that the whole program of entertainment will be on a larger scale. California has a tradition to maintain as a commonwealth hospitable to her guests. May the forthcoming welcome be worthy both of that tradition and the distinguished character of the visitors! There are many serious problems before the conference for discussion and solution—problems suggested by the economic situation and the widespread increase in organized crime. How the States can coordinate their powers with those of the Federal Government to stamp out racketeering, kidnapping and other major crimes which leap the States' borders is one of the vital questions before the conference.

Happily the Governors will not be so engrossed in their business sessions that they will not have an opportunity to see some of the glories of California. Three cities—Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles—will have the privilege of entertaining them and in between there will be visits to Tahoe, Yosemite, the Big Trees and the film colony at Hollywood.

We hope that much good will come from the conference. We shall be happier still if what is accomplished can be largely attributed to the fact that the Governors were laboring among a friendly, sympathetic and co-operative people.

Cool Clothing Reaches Staid Old Great Britain

San Bernardino Sun
England is advancing sartorially. It can't be more than a quarter of a century since Mark Twain started that country by wearing a white dress suit in London, because he preferred white to black and because it was cooler. Now already a nobleman follows his example. The other evening the elderly Duke of Marlborough, ninth bearer of that title, appeared at a formal ball dressed in white linen and soft collar.

The gathering, of course, was started almost out of its wits. The duke explained kindly that he did it not merely for selfish comfort, but as an example to other men who were mopping themselves in the heat wave.

Now there's some chance of dear old England being as comfortable indoors as it is outdoors. Even there, it may learn something from this crass country. A true Briton never takes off his coat. Britannia may yet cease to be shocked by shirt-sleeves.

We're making further progress toward sanity over here, too. The reference is not to bathing suits, which tend more and more toward the infantile minimum, lacking sense as much as Victorian styles did. It's the wearing of cool clothing by men more generally than ever before.

Uniform Motor Laws

Seranton Times
Need for uniform motor laws, particularly with respect to commercial vehicles, is becoming more apparent with the development and wide use of motorbuses and trucks in interstate commerce. To the end that something along this line shall be developed a conference has been called for October in Harrisburg of representatives from sixteen northeastern states. The conference will be under the direction of the American Legislators' Association, a national organization of state legislators, and has been called at the request of the Pennsylvania Legislature.

About a year or so ago Pennsylvania and New Jersey were engaged in a borderline motor carrier war with each state threatening reprisals on motorcars operating in the other. Finally when it appeared that commercial truck business between the two states would be stopped altogether a truce was declared. Ohio and West Virginia have likewise been making faces at each other over the question of trucks licensed in one state operating in the other without taking out an additional license.

It Might Be a Little Confusing At First

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

REFORM OR REPLACEMENT

As I watch the tide of affairs in Europe and scan the day-to-day happenings in the United States, I become increasingly convinced that democratic self-government, as it has been functioning through parliaments and congresses, must reform itself or be replaced.

Russia has put a strong central government in the place of free representative institutions, and this strong central government has enforced national planning by the ruthless elimination of personal, political, and economic freedom. Italy has put a strong central government in the place of free representative institutions, although their shadow has been preserved, and it has enforced national planning by the ruthless elimination of the sort of personal and political freedom we have enjoyed, but has retained a controlled sort of economic freedom.

Hitler is heading in this direction almost at a gallop.

Even England has been getting up agencies that begin to absorb powers heretofore held by the parliament.

We are still trying to administer this new world with the political instruments that were designed to administer a smaller, simpler and slower world.

We must sooner or later face the problem of adapting our form of government to the facts of the new time.

I do not believe we have to go to Communism.

I do not believe we have to surrender to Fascism.

And, above all, I do not believe we have to continue to suffer the incredible inefficiency of our democracy.

I believe that we can both plan our lives and preserve our freedom, and I think the conditions on which we can do this are the conditions at which I hinted the other day, which are:

(1) That legislative bodies delegate some of their powers to the executive without giving up their proper responsibility for major policies.

(2) That the major fields of economic enterprise become socially responsible self-governments under the necessary social safeguards government may set up.

(3) That government bring the expert judgment of business, industry and finance formally into its councils.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

WHAT'S TO DO ABOUT IT?

Melithabel Jones keeps immaculate house!

She knows Mr. Ibsen by heart;

She could school the most ignorant, thick-witted spouse

In subjects like music and art;

She can paint lovely flowers on silken brocade,

She has read all the cultural books;

Connoisseurs chant the praise of the pies she has made—

In fact all she lacks is the looks.

Her father and mother cannot understand

Why no man has ever applied for her hand.

Outie McNittwit is mentally dense—

Not even her folks claim she's wise—

But she turns all the heads of susceptible gents

The instant they look in her eyes.

Her schooling was ended when she was fourteen,

At the principal's earnest request,

But she bursts like a pony forth on the scene

When in Paris creations she's dressed,

And scores of young gentlemen daily compete

For the right to lay motors and yachts at her feet.

It seems pretty hard that a beautiful Jane

Having only a come-hither face

Should wither the judgment and deaden the brain

Of most of the masculine race.

The man who is guided by bright eyes alone,

And who thinks he is favored by fate,

Is sure to put up a low, piteous moan

At a not far distant date.

But the blame, after all, may be hardly called his—

It's merely the way that this life of ours is.

ALL V. P.'S ARE

Now Jack Garner has become the forgotten man.

I was the last one at the dining room table on account of eating a 2nd apple dumpling, more because it was a apple dumpling than because I was hungry, and Nora started to clear away the rest of the dishes, saying, Did I tell you that your funny face friend Pudding Simkins left a note for you before supper?

Where is it, G wizzickers, I said, and she said, There it is on the mantelpiece.

And I quick jumped up and read it saying, on it, The Mystick 3 meets tonight at Post number one, don't fail.

Meaning me and Pudds and Leroy Shooster around the lam post, and I said, Well gosh shang it, this is a heck of a time to tell me.

Well you know now, don't you, stop your jabbering or the next time I want tell you at all, Nora said, and I said, You want, heh? Well you better had or you'll be sorry, do you hear? I said.

And she started to get mad and we yelled insults at each other a while, and pop called down, Benny, come up here.

Wich I did, and pop and ma was in the living room, pop saying, What's all the rioting about? and me saying, Nora had a message for me about 2 hours, and good night she just gave it to me and holey smoke it's about a important meeting, G wizzickers.

Heaven be praised, there's such a thing as justice in the world, pop said to me. It was scarcely a week ago that I received a telephone communication of great significance, or at least I would of received it if this same young man hadn't secreted it in the inscrutable recesses of his brain until it outlived its usefulness, he said, and ma said, And it was only yesterday that the postman handed him a letter for me and he breezily stuck it in his pocket and if I hadn't found it myself by accident, it would of probably become one of the 7 missing mysteries of the world, so now he has a taste of it himself, hee hee.

But G, good night, jimmiey Chrissmas, I said, and pop said, You're excused, you may withdraw.

Wich I did, and the meeting of the Mystick 3 was only just beginning making me feel lucky.
